Teaching Languages with Technology Euline Cutrim Schmid,Shona Whyte,2014-11-03 This book draws on theories of second language acquisition SLA to illustrate how interactive white board technology can be exploited to support language acquisition It examines interaction collaboration and negotiation of meaning and focus on form in the communicative language classroom in primary secondary and vocational schools In recent years new technologies have been incorporated into second and foreign language education as tools for implementing teaching methodologies IWBs have established their role in the field of computer assisted language learning CALL and are an effective and inspiring tool which motivates both teachers and learners Although the number of IWBs in classrooms has rapidly increased over the past decade in many parts of the world teacher training materials and pedagogical support for the design evaluation and implementation of IWB based materials in the foreign language classroom has not kept pace Research also shows that language teachers do not always use IWBs in pedagogically sound ways There is a real need for the development of training models and examples of good practice which can support teachers in developing the necessary competencies for exploiting the IWB in ways consistent with current theories of language teaching pedagogy This book provides that best practice and gives a full account of in depth research in an accessible manner Gender and Social Justice in Wales

Nickie Charles,Charlotte Aull Davies,2010-06-15 This book assesses how policies developed by the National Assembly for Wales are affecting gender inequalities and investigates whether they are having an impact on social justice for women in Wales In 1999 the first elections to devolved governments took place in Scotland and Wales In Wales this resulted in 40 per cent of Assembly Members being women In 2003 this proportion increased to 50 per cent which makes the National Assembly for Wales the first legislative body with equal numbers of men and women in the world The Guardian 3 5 03 This new gender balance of political representatives is a significant change in the gendering of political institutions and this together with the creation of a new tier of government has the potential to create new opportunities for the development of social policies which address gender and other social inequalities Focusing on distinct policy domains this book explores gender politics in a devolved Wales Each chapter investigates a particular aspect of social policy exploring the way it has developed since devolution and the extent to which considerations of gender and social justice for women are central to this development The empirical chapters which form the core of the book are situated theoretically and politically by the first chapter which discusses how gender and social justice can be theorised and explores devolution and its relation to gender politics in Wales Indigenous Languages Revitalized?:The Decline and Revitalization □□□□,2000-08 Endangered Languages and Languages in Danger Luna Filipović,Martin Pütz,2016-10-03 This peer reviewed collection brings together the latest research on language endangerment and language rights It creates a vibrant interdisciplinary platform for the discussion of the most pertinent and urgent topics central to vitality and equality of languages in today s globalised world The novelty of the volume lies in the multifaceted view on the variety of dangers that languages face today such as extinction through dwindling speaker populations and lack of adequate preservation policies or inequality in different social contexts e g access to justice education and research resources There are examples of both loss and survival and discussion of multiple factors that condition these two different outcomes We pose and answer difficult questions such as whether forced interventions in preventing loss are always warranted or indeed viable The emerging shared perspective is that of hope to inspire action towards improving the position of different languages and their speakers through research of this kind
