The Honorable Edward B. Murray
Mayor of Seattle

The Honorable Bruce Harrell
President, Seattle City Council

The Honorable Tim Burgess
Chair, Seattle City Council Affordable Housing, Neighborhoods, & Finance Committee

P.O. Box 94749
Seattle, WA 98124-4749

Dear Mayor Murray, Council Member Harrell, and Council Member Burgess:

The Seattle City Council's recent vote to end the City's 18-year relationship with Wells Fargo based on our participation in the financing of the Dakota Access Pipeline (DAPL) and recent consumer lawsuits was disappointing, and could cause some unintended consequences for taxpayers. I'd like to make a few respectful observations and provide an offer for your consideration.

Wells Fargo has been a strong partner for the City of Seattle through both good and challenging times. Looking back at our relationship with the City, we were awarded your business in 1999 through a formal RFP process as the most qualified bank that could deliver the complex banking and treasury solutions the City required and providing those at the best value for your residents. Most recently, we retained the City's business in 2012 through another rigorous RFP, chosen once again as the best solution for the City's financial needs. Working with the City through the years, we've built an outstanding relationship with your Department of Finance & Administrative Services, based on diligence, honesty, and integrity.

As I'm sure you and your staff have considered, changing banks is often a very complex process, and can include the potential for incurring unnecessary costs for the City and its taxpayers from other banks for transferring accounts, payments and disbursement services, payroll, merchant card processing, investments, and higher priced, ongoing services.

Wells Fargo would like to offer the City the opportunity to break your banking services contract with us immediately and without any related fees. We also offer to help you make a smooth transition to the bank of your choice.

I would point out that other PDPC-approved financial institutions that have responded in the past to the City's RFP for Bank Depository Services, or that are currently providing the City with services, also are involved with the financing of the Dakota Access Pipeline project. We feel it is critical for the City to consider these facts and weigh them alongside our nearly two-decade partnership that has indisputably well served the people of Seattle.

Together we'll go far
