Visions Of Poetry:

Dreams and Visions in English Poetry Marjorie Noel How, 1916 Visions & Revisions of American Poetry(p) Lewis Turco, 1986 Dreams and visions in English poetry Marjorie N. How, 1969 Visions Beyond My Eyes Oscar Kamazima, 2015-12-27 In Oscar Kamazimas Visions beyond My Eyes poems of life love and faith come together in forms of creatively placed words to create vivid stories that captivate the reader This collection of poems encapsulates life changing events and visions that are hard to understand or move past due to the many obstacles of life One thing that is highlighted frequently is the word hope and how there is still hope and love within this world even in the midst of the chaos around us Each individual poem should remind us of a part of reality especially the events and thoughts that we consistently overlook Not only does it draw our attention to the everyday moments in life but it reminds us to continue to dream Visions in Late Medieval England Gwenfair Walters Adams, 2007-02-01 Visions were highly popular in the late Middle Ages whether preached as vivid stories from the pulpit illuminated in saint filled manuscripts or experienced during the breathless anticipation of a Mass or eerie darkness of a Yorkshire graveyard This volume is the first to map out the wide range of vision types in late medieval English lay piety Analyzing 1000 visionary accounts gathered from sermon and exempla collections religious devotional works saints legends and lay stories it explores five central dynamics of spirituality that visions shaped and sustained Transactions of Satisfaction visits to and from purgatory and hell Reciprocated Devotion visitations of the saints Spiritual Warfare attacks by demons Supra Sacramental Sight Mass and Passion sightings and Mediated Revelation prophetic visions Voices & Visions Helen Vendler, 1987 Chaucer's Philosophical Visions Kathryn L. Lynch, 2000 New readings of Chaucer s dream visions demonstrating his philosophical interests and learning Visions of Poetry Alexander Roman, 2014-10-31 Alexander Roman is a 38 Year Old Author Poet who is originally from New Jersey and now resides in Virginia He has his own Facebook Poetry page Heart and Soul Poetry with thousands of followers His love for poetry shows in his unorthodox use of words and his ability to paint fascinating and celestial pictures in the minds of his readers Poetic Knight Vée Nelly, 2020-07-22 Visit Our page to Find Out More KVInk Independent Publishers Business Site The realism of dream visions Constance B. Hieatt, 2019-01-29 No detailed description available for The realism of dream visions Mediæval Culture: The literary background and the poetry of the "Divine comedy" Karl Vossler, 1929 Ekphrastic Medieval Visions C. Barbetti, 2011-10-27 Explores the transformative power of ekphrasis in high and late medieval dream visions and mystical visions Demonstrates that medieval ekphrases reveal ekphrasis as a process rather than a genre and shows how it works with cultural memory to transform shift and revise composition Visions of British Culture from the Reformation to Romanticism Celestina Savonius-Wroth, 2022-01-17 This book is a major new contribution to the study of cultural identities in Britain and Ireland from the Reformation to Romanticism It provides a fresh perspective on the rise of interest in British vernacular or folk cultures which has often been elided with the emergence of British Romanticism and its Continental precursors Here the Romantics discovery of and admiration for vernacular traditions is placed in a longer historical timeline reaching back to the controversies sparked by the Protestant Reformation The book charts the emergence of a nuanced discourse about vernacular cultures developing in response to the Reformers devastating attack on customary practices and beliefs relating to the natural world seasonal festivities and rites of passage It became a discourse grounded in humanist Biblical and antiquarian scholarship informed by the theological and pastoral problems of the long period of religious instability after the Reformation and over the course of the eighteenth century colored by new ideas about culture drawn from Enlightenment historicism and empiricism This study shows that Romantic literary primitivism and Romantic social thought both radical and conservative grew out of this rich context It will be welcomed by historians of early modern and eighteenth century Britain and those interested in the study of religious and vernacular cultures

Visions of Presence in Modern American Poetry Nathan A. Scott,1993 In Visions of Presence in Modern American poetry eminent scholar Nathan A Scott Jr argues that this testimony to presence offered by poetry is the strongest possible refutation of poststructuralist theory of knowledge Exhibiting the kind of wide ranging analysis his readers have come to expect Scott explores the ways in which the poetic act of contemplation makes palpable the sense of a something more

Visions Troy Harmon,2011-01-16 My book Visions was my first book I felt I had a message to send out to the world I thought I could help or inspire someone if my book Visions makes you think or helps you get through another day then I ve done my job as a poet Thank you I hope you enjoy the book Troy Harmon

Visions of the Night Kelly Bulkeley,1999-09-16 This wide ranging exploration of the spiritual and scientific dimensions of dreaming offers new connections between the ancient wisdom of the world s religious traditions which have always taught that dreams reveal divine truths and the recent findings of modern psychological research Drawing upon philosophy anthropology sociology neurology literature and film criticism the book offers a better understanding of the mysterious complexity and startling creative powers of human dreaming experience For those interested in gaining new perspectives on dreaming the powers of the imagination and the newest frontiers in the dialogue between religion and science Visions of the Night promises to be a welcome resource

Visions and Revisions John Cowper Powys,1915 Chaucerian Dream Visions and Complaints Dana M Symons,2004-11-01 On several counts one particular collection of French lyrics made in France in the late fourteenth century University of Pennsylvania MS 15 is the most likely repository of Chaucer s French poems It is the largest manuscript anthology extant of fourteenth century French lyrics in the formes fixes balade rondeaux virelay lay and five stanza chanson with by far the largest number of works of unknown authorship The known authors represented in the manuscript and the texts themselves have notable associations with England and with Chaucer And intriguingly there are fifteen lyrics each headed by the initials Ch very likely indications of authorship neatly inserted between rubric and text The rubrics together with other substantial manuscript evidence and the intrinsic worth of the poems make them easily the best candidates among extant French lyrics for Chaucer s authorship appropriate representatives of his French work from the Introduction Ideas of Authorship in the English and Scottish Dream Vision Laurie Atkinson, 2024 An investigation of English and Scottish dream visions written on the cusp of the Renaissance teasing out distinctive ideas of authorship which informed their design The fifteenth and sixteenth centuries have long been acknowledged as a period of profound change in ideas of authorship in which a transition from a medieval to a modern paradigm took place In England and Scotland changing approaches to Chaucer have rightly been considered as a catalyst for the elevation of English as a literary language and the birth of an English literary history There is a tendency however when moving from Chaucer's self-professed poetic followers of this time to the philological approach associated with William Caxton and the 1532 Works to pass over the literary careers of the English and Scots poets belonging to the intervening half century John Skelton William Dunbar Stephen Hawes and Gavin Douglas This volume redresses that neglect Its close and comparative readings of these poets stimulating but critically neglected dream visions and related first person narratives reveal a spectrum of ideas of authorship four distinct engagements with tradition and opportunity united by their utilisation of a particular form It regards authorship as a topic of invention a discourse for appropriation which is available to but not inevitable in late medieval and early modern writing Overall it facilitates newly focussed study of an often obscured literary historical period one with a heightened interest in the authors of the past Chaucer Lydgate Petrarch Virgil but also an increasingly acute perception of the conditions of authorship in the present Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Pastoral Tradition Donna L. Potts, 2012-01-01 In Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Pastoral Tradition Donna L Potts closely examines the pastoral genre in the work of six Irish poets writing today Through the exploration of the poets and their works she reveals the wide range of purposes that pastoral has served in both Northern Ireland and the Republic a postcolonial critique of British imperialism a response to modernity industrialization and globalization a way of uncovering political and social repercussions of gendered representations of Ireland and more recently a means for conveying environmentalism's more complex understanding of the value of nature Potts traces the pastoral back to its origins in the work of Theocritus of Syracuse in the third century and plots its evolution due to cultural changes While all pastoral poems share certain generic traits Potts makes clear that pastorals are shaped by social and historical contexts and Irish pastorals in particular were influenced by Ireland's unique relationship with the land language and industrialization due to England's colonization For her discussion Potts has chosen six poets who have written significant collections of pastoral poetry and whose work is in dialogue with both the pastoral tradition and other contemporary pastoral poets Three poets are men John Montague Seamus Heaney Michael Longley while three are women Eavan Boland Medbh McGuckian Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill Five are English language authors while the sixth Ní Dhomhnaill writes in Irish Additionally some of the poets hail from the Republic while others originate from Northern Ireland Potts contends that while both Irish Republic and Northern Irish poets respond to a shared history of British colonization in their pastorals the 1921 partition of the country caused the pastoral tradition to evolve differently on either side of the border primarily because of the North's more rapid industrialization its more heavily Protestant population whose response to environmentalism was somewhat different than that of the Republic's predominantly Catholic population as well the greater impact of the world wars and the Irish Troubles In an important distinction from other studies of Irish poetry Potts moves beyond the influence of history and politics on contemporary Irish pastoral poetry to consider the relatively recent influence of ecology Contemporary Irish poets often rely on the motif of the pastoral retreat to highlight various environmental threats to those retreats whether they be high rises motorways global warming or acid rain Potts concludes by speculating on the future of pastoral in contemporary Irish poetry through her examination of more recent poets including Moya Cannon and Paula Meehan as well as other genres such as film drama and fiction
