Turnpenny, 2015-04-30 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the Elgaronline platform www.elgaronline.com/view/9781783477036.xml Policy analysts are accustomed to thinking in terms of tools and instruments Yet an authoritative examination The Political Economy of Universal Healthcare in Africa Philip C. Aka, Hassan Wahab, Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2022-04-27 The global rise in pandemics most recently COVID 19 and other health challenges some of which are due to climate change have imposed significant challenges on the healthcare systems in economies around the world Thus this book deals with an issue that is very timely and relevant not just in Africa but globally It critically assesses healthcare reforms in Ghana under the Fourth Republic since 1993 Although it focuses on Ghana's National Health Insurance Scheme of 2003 the book instructively goes beyond this program The book argues that although Ghana is a bellwether of healthcare reforms in Africa its healthcare initiatives are still far from the service haven of healthcare as a human right Themes that animate the book's argument include the need to translate human rights law such as the right to health into practical policies that work for ordinary citizens Key highlights of the book include an increased accent on health as a human right emphasis on comparative analysis in healthcare studies and the formulation of a four hallmark framework embedded in economics law politics and human rights to act as a guide for assessment of healthcare reforms in Africa in particular and Ghana more specifically Using Ghana as a case study and analytical window into the world the book offers a valuable and timely resource for academics students and policymakers across the disciplines of development and healthcare economics law public policy political science sociology and African and Caribbean studies as well as in various fields in health science International Labour Migration in the Middle East and Asia Kwen Fee Lian, Naomi Hosoda, Masako Ishii, 2019-08-22 The discourse on migration outcomes in the West has largely been dominated by issues of integration but it is more relevant to view immigration in non Western societies in relation to practices of exclusion and inclusion Exclusion refers to a situation in which individuals and groups are usually denied access to the goods services activities and resources associated with citizenship However this approach has been criticised in relation to gender issues which are very relevant to the situation of migrants The authors in this volume address this criticism Furthermore when framed within a North South discourse it may be potentially ethnocentric to assume that the experience of exclusion is cross culturally uniform Indeed work on migration issues has invariably been conducted within such a discourse The contributors go beyond this binary discourse of exclusion versus inclusion which has dominated migration research They examine the situation of migrants in the Middle East and Asia as one that encompasses both exclusion and inclusion addressing related concepts of empowerment ethnocracy the feminisation of migration and gendered geographies of power liberal constraint and multiculturalism individual agency migrant friendly discourses spaces of emancipation and spaces of insecurity The book highlights current research in the Arab Gulf states and examines multiculturalism in Asia more broadly It will be of particular interest to students and researchers in international labour migration studies in the Middle East and Asia
