Galloway, 2011 Woman as Mother and Wife in the African Context of the Family in the Light of John Paul II's Anthropological and Theological Foundation Joseph Okech Adhunga, 2014-04-30 This study examines the theological and anthropological foundations of the understanding of the dignity and vocation of woman as a mother and wife gifts given by God that expresses the riches of the African concept of family There are two approaches to inculturation theology in Africa namely that which attempts to construct African theology by starting from the biblical ecclesial teachings and find from them what features of African culture are relevant to the Christian theological and anthropological values and the other one which takes the African cultural background as the point of departure According to John Paul II the dignity and vocation of woman is something more universal based on the very fact of her being a woman within all the interpersonal relationships which in the most varied ways shape society and structure the interaction between all persons Mulieris Dignitatem no 29 This concerns each and every woman independent of the cultural context in which she lives and independently of her spiritual psychological and physical characteristics as for example age education health work and whether she is married or single Mulieris Dignitatem no 29 The theology of inculturation as presented in this dissertation opens the way for the integration of the theological anthropological teachings of John Paul II in understanding African woman as mother and wife Pan-African Issues in Crime and Justice Biko Agozino, 2017-07-05 Criminology is an established discipline yet non Western criminology is still relatively ignored in the literature Drawing upon materials from countries in Africa the Caribbean North and South America and Europe this stimulating book reflects on the experiences of people of African descent to offer a convergence of criminologies in and outside the West The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references Women on the March ,1971 Women of the Whole World ,1983
