community engagement Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian, Brian J. Hracs, Lauren England, 2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds China and Africa in Global Context LI Anshan, 2022-02-23 This book studies the relationship between China and Africa by reviewing this history and current state of interactions offering a valuable addition to the often heated and contentious debate surrounding China's engagement in Africa from a Chinese angle Comprising four parts the book covers a kaleidoscopic range of topics on China Africa relations based on materials from different languages Part I looks into early historical contact between China and Africa and the historiography of African Studies in China in recent decades Part II probes the origins dynamics challenges and cultural heritage of China's policies towards Africa Part III explores the issue of development cooperation from both a theoretical and a practical point of view with a focus on the case of Chinese medical teams in Africa and China's technology transfer to the continent Part IV illustrates bilateral migration discussing the history and life of Chinese immigrants in Africa and the African diaspora in China The insights in this book as well as real life case studies will make this work an indispensable reference for academics students policy makers and general readers who are interested in international issues and area studies especially China Africa relations China's rise and African development Africa-China-Taiwan Relations, 1949-2020 Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2022-07-26 The ongoing tension and hostility between China and Taiwan in Africa are a continuation of the Chinese Civil War 1927-1949 between the forces of the Chinese Communist Party CCP which remained in mainland China and the Kuomintang KMT of the Republic of China ROC which fled to the island of Taiwan In the intervening years China has claimed Taiwan as part of its territory and through persistent and aggressive political and economic efforts convinced much of the world to accept her as the sole and legitimate seat of the Chinese people and government Africa China Taiwan Relations

1949 2020 provides a coherent account of why and how China was able to convince African governments to acquiesce to her claims which have resulted in the expulsion of and the diplomatic isolation of Taiwan on the African continent This volume edited by Sabella Ogbobode Abidde also explains Taiwan s unsuccessful efforts at blunting China s maneuvers It further discusses the endogenous and exogenous factors that swayed African governments to switch their diplomatic allegiance away from Taiwan a country that was for many years an ally and dependable partner in their quest for growth and development Finally the book contains critical assessments of the role and place of China and Taiwan and their current relationship with states and societies on the African continent

Microbial Toxins in Food Systems: Causes, Mechanisms, Complications, and Metabolism Abdel Moneim Elhadi Sulieman, Nawaf Ibrahim Alshammari, 2024-08-22 When our food items become contaminated with pathogenic microorganisms these microorganisms secrete microbial toxins which promote infection by attacking the host tissue s immune system thereby leading to foodborne intoxication or poisoning in consumers Because these toxic microorganisms are not typically identifiable by taste smell or sight it is crucial to the safety of our food systems that they be detected through microbial testing As the title suggests Microbial Toxins Causes Mechanisms Complications and Metabolism is a comprehensive overview of the life of these toxins from their pathogenesis through to their implications for human and environmental health Including examples of salmonella botulism listeria and more as well as various mycotoxins this text will appeal to both microbiology researchers as well as food industry professionals Beyond foodborne illness this text also unpacks environmental toxicology and the role of microbial toxins in the development of novel anti cancer drugs Emerging techniques in the detection of microbial toxins will be discussed setting this text apart from existing books on the subject The use of proteomics in toxin identification for example allows for the determination of metabolic pathways and biomarkers of pathogenicity and resistance of biotoxins This text furthers the study of foodborne hazards and has important implications for the improvement of safety in the food industry
