The ^Astruggle for Freedom from Fear Alison Brysk,2018-08-01 How can we understand and contest the global wave of violence against women In this book Alison Brysk shows that gender violence across countries tends to change as countries develop and liberalize but not in the ways that we might predict She shows how liberalizing authoritarian countries and transitional democracies may experience more shifting patterns and greater levels of violence than less developed and democratic countries due to changes and uncertainties in economic and political structures While a combination of international action law public policy civil society mobilization and changes in social values work to decrease gender violence Brysk assesses the potential limits and balance of these measures

The Everyday Politics of Food Co-ops Celia Plender,2025-05-01 National politics has a significant impact on organizing and accessing community welfare This book engages with notions of everyday politics within two London based food co ops emerging from different political environments and ideologies It provides a careful and engaging examination of the experiences of political and economic change in Austerity Britain revealing how national politics came to punctuate everyday lives within the co ops It highlights the political resonances that practices of care aid and community organizing came to have within the food co ops at a time of rapid welfare withdrawal as well as the tensions between more radical and neoliberal imaginaries that played out within them

Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz,Ana Ferreira,Kerryn Dixon,2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy Achieving Equity and Quality in Higher Education Mahsood Shah,Jade McKay,2018-07-05 Across the world higher education is witnessing exponential growth in both student participation and types of educational providers One key phenomenon of this growth is an increase in student diversity governments are widening access to higher education for students from traditionally underrepresented groups However this raises questions about whether this rapid growth may in face compromise academic quality This book presents case studies of how higher education institutions in diverse countries are maintaining academic excellence while increasing the access and participation of students from historically underrepresented backgrounds Including case studies spanning four continents the authors and editors examine whether increasing widening participation positively impacts upon academic quality This volume will be of interest and value to students and scholars of global higher education representation and participation in education and quality in higher education Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination Chisita, Collence Takaingenhamo,Enakrire, Rexwhite Tega,Durodolu, Oluwole Olumide,Tsabedze, Vusi Wonderboy,Ngoaketsi, Joseph M.,2021-01-15 The convergence of technologies and emergence of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary modus of knowledge production justify the need for research that explores the disinterestedness or interconnectivity of the information science disciplines The quantum leap in knowledge production increasing demand for information and knowledge changing information needs information governance and proliferation of digital technologies in the era of ubiquitous digital technologies justify research that employs a holistic approach in x raying the challenges of managing information in an increasingly knowledge and technology driven dispensation The changing nature of knowledge production for sustainable development along with trends and theory for enhanced knowledge coordination deserve focus in current times The Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination draws input from experts involved in records management information science library science memory and digital technology creating a vanguard compendium of novel trends and praxis While highlighting a vast array of topics under the scope of library science information science knowledge transfer records management and more this book is ideally designed for knowledge and information managers library and information science schools policymakers practitioners stakeholders administrators researchers academicians and students interested in records and information management

The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency Serges Djoyou Kamga, 2024-11-15 The Complex Interplay between Power Politics and African Agency The Philosophy of Toyin Falola by Serges Djoyou Kamga examines the impact of colonialism by using Toyin Falola's philosophy as a framework It delves into the evolution of African political culture under colonial rule This book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society providing a deeper understanding of how power and politics have shaped African culture Kamga emphasizes the complex interplay between these elements and highlights the significance of African voices in determining their own destiny Using Falola's works this book analyzes and critiques the influence of Europe and establishes the ongoing unequal relationship between ex colonized African countries and their imperialist colonizers This book is highly recommended for scholars of African studies political science and anyone interested in African history and culture

Digital Activism in Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21 This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony

Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19 This Handbook brings together 40 of the world's leading scholars and rising stars who study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades Including authors from Australia Canada Europe India South Africa the UK and the USA all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities For many of these authors answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century For others it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent Part 1 to scholarly craft and technique Part 2 to questions of authority and responsibility Part 3 history and historiography Part 4 plurality and community Part 5 as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times Part 6 Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever this Handbook will be essential for scholars students and practitioners in international law international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally

Building Development Studies for the New Millennium Isa Baud, Elisabetta Basile, Tiina Kontinen, Susanne von Itter, 2018-12-21 This book brings together multiple critical assessments of the current state and future visions of global development studies It examines how the field engages with new paradigms and narratives methodologies and scientific impact and perspectives from the Global South The authors focus on social and democratic transformation inclusive development and global environmental issues and implications for research practices Leading academics provide an excellent overview of recent insights for post graduate students and scholars in these research areas

The Ethos of Digital Environments Susanna Lindberg, Hanna-Riikka Roine, 2021-05-27 While self driving cars and autonomous weapon systems have received a great deal of attention in media and research the general requirements of ethical life in today's digitalizing reality have not been made sufficiently visible and evaluable This collection of articles from both distinguished and emerging authors working at the intersections of philosophy literary theory media and technology does not intend to fix new moral rules Instead the volume explores the ethos of digital environments asking how we can orient ourselves in them and inviting us to renewed moral reflection in the face of dilemmas they entail The authors show how contemporary digital technologies model our perception narration as well as our conceptions of truth and investigate the ethical moral and juridical consequences of making public and societal infrastructures computational They argue that we must make the structures of the digital environments visible and learn to care for them

How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an interdisciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography Political Values and Narratives of Resistance Fiona Anciano, Joanna Wheeler, 2021-03-23 This book brings together multidisciplinary perspectives to explore how political values and acts of resistance impact the delivery of social justice in post colonial states Everyday life in post colonial states such as South Africa and Zimbabwe is characterized by injustices that have both a historical and contemporary nature From fishers in Cape Town accused of poaching to residents of Bulawayo demanding access to water this book focuses on the relationship between the state and groups that have been historically oppressed due to being on the margins of the political economic and social system It draws on empirical research from 12 scholars looking at cases in Brazil India South Africa and Zimbabwe Chapters explore questions such as what citizens especially those from marginalized groups want from the state The book looks at the political values of citizens and how these are formed in the process of engaging with the state and through everyday injustices It also asks why and how citizens resist the state with examples of protest as well as less visible forms of resistance reflecting complex histories and power relations Finally the book explores how narratives and counter narratives reveal the nature of political values and perceptions of what is just Taken together these elements show the evolution of post colonial social contracts Examining important themes in political science anthropology sociology and urban geography this book will appeal to scholars and students interested in political values justice social movements and resistance Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries Onyancha, Omwoyo Bosire, Tella, Adeyinka, 2023-06-01 The emotive discourses on the subject of university rankings are directly linked to the effect of such rankings on the performance of universities throughout the world It has been observed that the top ranked universities attract major financial commitments from the industry the best students quality researchers and a wide range of other quality endowments such as equipment libraries and laboratories It is not surprising that the ranking of universities has gained popularity and become a significant factor shaping not only the reputation of universities but also the performance of said institutions around the world including the developing countries Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries presents a collection of perspectives from scholars and other stakeholders on the impact of the global ranking systems on developing countries The book is an additional resource for discussion and discourse as far as the global university ranking systems are concerned and opens new frontiers for further research Covering key topics such as assessment ethics and academic freedom this premier reference source is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson, Judith Byfield, 2017-08-01 Global Africa is a striking original volume that disrupts the dominant narratives that continue to frame our discussion of Africa complicating conventional views of the region as a place of violence despair and victimhood The volume documents the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made throughout the world from the United States and South Asia to Latin America Europe and elsewhere Through succinct and engaging pieces by scholars policy makers activists and journalists the volume provides a wholly original view of a continent at the center of global historical processes rather than on the periphery Global Africa offers fresh complex and insightful visions of a continent in flux
