The Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit,Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila,Elspeth Jones,Nico Jooste,2017-01-20 The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today s world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education

Negotiating Quality Concerns in Higher Education amidst Disruptions Felix Maringe,Otilia Chiramba,2025-06-02 Quality is at the heart of organisational development It is the one single reason organisations make progress or fail dismally when it is absent Disruptions can both be a catalyst for innovation and progress on one hand but when they are not well handled they can cause organisations to spiral into catastrophe and oblivion This book is about how best to safeguard quality both during and beyond disruptions Based largely on research in South Africa the collection of essays will resonate with multiple higher education contexts and audiences Collectively the essays provide compelling reading for practitioners academics researchers and policy makers in higher education The book s central message is that while disruptions can expose our organisational weaknesses they create several opportunities to drive change and transformation The essays here capture the transition from crisis to high performance and ways in which universities can navigate such journeys

The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser,2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future

Issues Around Aligning Theory, Research and Practice in Social Work Education Allucia L. Shokane,Jabulani C. Makhubele,Lisa V. Blitz,2018-12-01 Issues Around Aligning Theory Research and Practice in Social Work Education provides a reflection on social work education with a slant towards an Afrocentric approach aiming to facilitate strong reflective thinking and to address local realities about social work education on the African continent as well as in broader global contexts This volume focuses on issues around aligning theory research and practice in social work education A significant contribution is made here to the scholarly understanding of opportunities to sustain the academic discourse on social work education Social work as a profession and a social science discipline is dynamic and it ought to meet the challenges of the realities of the societies in which it serves given the history of the changing society of South Africa from apartheid to democracy Over the years social work education and training has undergone tremendous curricular changes with the enactment of the White Paper for Social Welfare and the national review respectively by the South African Council for Social Services Professions SACSSP and the Council on Higher Education CHE for the re accreditation of all Bachelor of Social Work BSW programmes in South Africa fulfilling the prescripts of the Higher Education Act No 101 of 1997 as amended and Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 It is worth mentioning that the curricular changes will also continue with the current reviewing of Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 as amended which is underway in South Africa This book is really ground breaking The Afrocentric perspective on social work practice contributes to the current discourse on decolonisation of social work teaching and practice From a methodological perspective the book is premised on multi inter and trans disciplining in social sciences It covers aspects of social work education and practice through research narrative qualitative African methodology secondary data analysis etc engendering values and ethics report writing supervision in fieldwork as well as exchange programmes and international service learning addressing a number of concepts such as cultural competency cultural awareness and sensitivity are addressed

Reimagining Effective Stakeholder Governance Practices in Higher Education Felix Omal,2023-06-22 This book examines the role of the university governing council and the changing nature of university governance using a case study from a South African university The book considers the key challenging features of South African higher education in relation to current competing international trends in higher education governance It shows how major decision makers within the university operate within competing governance knowledge domains to exercise good practice within turbulent institutional contexts These diverse institutional cultures are examined in terms of their contribution to various governance practices presenting an emerging model of university governance known as the structural systemic cultural model Throwing light on the nature of challenges associated with the governance of universities in the post apartheid era this book will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and education governance Also it will appeal to university councils and management across Africa

Ethical Research Approaches to Indigenous Knowledge Education Mthembu, Ntokozo, 2020-08-14 South Africa s recent higher education protests around fees and decolonizing institutions have shone a spotlight on important issues and inspired global discussion The educational space was the most affected by clashes between languages and ideas the prioritizing of English and Afrikaans over indigenous African languages and the prioritizing of Western medicine literature arts culture and science over African ones Ethical Research Approaches to Indigenous Knowledge Education is a cutting edge scholarly resource that examines forthcoming methodologies and strategies on educational reform and the updating of curricula to accurately reflect cultural shifts The book examines the bias and problems that bias creates in educational systems around the world that have been dominated by Western forms of knowledge and scientific processes Featuring a range of topics such as andragogy indigenous knowledge and marginalized students this book is ideal for education professionals practitioners curriculum designers academicians researchers administrators and students

Jeannerat: An Ethnography of Faith , 2023-06-02 Research into the history of Christian missions in the context of colonialism has focused primarily on missions as institutions and on the ways in which people were integrated into the economic political and ideological spheres of imperial powers Reduced to an experience occurring within a person faith was deemed unapproachable by scientific methods This has in effect constituted a silence regarding the everyday experience of religiosity amongst those drawn to Christianity

An Overview of the Roles and Benefits of Libraries Nkhangweni Patricia Mahwasane, 2019-03-08 Globally libraries are the backbones of the institutions in which they exist irrespective of whether they are in a developed country or a developing country Ideally no school should operate without one Different types of libraries provide various kinds of information to a range of people This collection of articles will attract the attention of education authorities education policy makers subject teachers teacher librarians academics students and parents Young adults can also obtain information here concerning career or vocational guidance This book promotes the use of libraries in students learning and quality of education
