University Of Wits Prospectus 2015:

Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities. However, this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings, they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research. If they do not participate in the rankings, they risk losing public funding, students, and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment. This book delves into the influence of journalists, business tycoons, and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured. Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define, deploy, and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized, globalized economy.

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain, posing a challenge to readers of all kinds, including professional literary critics. In Artefacts of Writing, Peter D. McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language, culture, and community. Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland, India, and South Africa, and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity, McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers, including T. S. Eliot, James Joyce, and Rabindranath Tagore, putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s. In the second part of the book, he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues, showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers, from Amit Chaudhuri, J. M. Coetzee, and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog, Arvind Krishna Mehrotra, and Es'kia Mphahlele, cast new light on a range of questions concerning education, literacy, human rights, translation, indigenous knowledge, and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945. At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis, Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught, often lethal, public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today.

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts, humanities, and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history. Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance. The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well-known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten. They include Magema Fuze, John Dube, Aggrey Klaaste, Mewa Ramgobin, and Koos Roets, alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah

Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran,Tripathi, Purnendu,2016-09-27 The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education systems is a pivotal goal in modern society Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective The Handbook of Research on Administration Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational institutions and presents best practices to improve policies and retain effective governance Addressing the current state of higher education at an international level this book is ideally designed for academicians educational administrators researchers and professionals Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Developing Countries Ngulube, Patrick,2016-09-12 There has been a growth in the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge High rates of poverty and a widening economic divide is threatening the accessibility to western scientific knowledge in the developing world where many indigenous people live Consequently indigenous knowledge has become a potential source for sustainable development in the developing world The Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Developing Countries presents interdisciplinary research on knowledge management sharing and transfer among indigenous communities Providing a unique perspective on alternative knowledge systems this publication is a critical resource for sociologists anthropologists researchers and graduate level students in a variety of fields Your History with Me Sarah Nuttall,2024-07-12 The critics scholars curators artists and filmmakers in this volume examine the films of Penny Siopis showing how they remake the possibility of film as a mode of experimentation and intervention Digital Technologies and Gendered Realities Lakshmi Lingam,Nolwazi Mkhwanazi,2024-09-13 The book explores the varying experiences and engagement of youth with smartphones and digital technologies in India and South Africa It examines the process of meaning making identity construction garnered through smartphone technology specifically relating to notions of love sex and sexuality A keen reappraisal of the smartphone revolution the essays underline the constant negotiations between technology and social institutions such as family schools colleges universities religious groups traditional community leaders media police law and governments The volume looks at new forms of digital based surveillance on girls women and gender minorities and maps
