Unsealing Revelation Eschatological Handbook Of The Apocalypse:

Unsealing Revelation Bob Conway, 2014-12-12 The Book of Revelation is the capstone of the Bible supplying the finishing touch to the whole panorama of history It promises a blessing to those who read it However for many readers and students of the Bible Revelation is a sealed book because of the vast amount of symbolism used to describe literal persons circumstances and events The author of Unsealing Revelation has designed this Eschatological Handbook of the Apocalypse to help the reader interpret the prewritten history that predominantly unfolds the surround circumstances of the Second Coming of Christ There is no attempt at a novel approach as the author covers the major interpretative views that are applied to this book that many find difficult to understand Included are many charts lists and tables to assist the reader Bob Conway holds a Master of Divinity Degree from Grace Theological Seminary and teaches Bible Theology and Biblical Hebrew at Regent College of the Caribbean in Jamaica WI

The Throne Motif in the Book of Revelation Laszlo Gallusz, 2013-12-05 This book argues that the throne motif constitutes the major interpretive key to the complex structure and theology of the book of Revelation In the first part of the book Gallusz examines the throne motif in the Old Testament Jewish literature and Graeco Roman sources He moves on to devote significant attention to the throne of God texts of Revelation and particularly to the analysis of the throne room vision chs 4 5 which is foundational for the development of the throne motif Gallusz reveals how Revelation utilizes the throne motif as the central principle for conveying a theological message since it appears as the focus of the author from the outset to the climax of the drama The book concludes with an investigation into the rhetorical impact of the motif and its contribution to the theology of Revelation Gallusz finally shows that the throne what it actually represents is of critical significance both to Revelation's theism and to God's dealing with the problem of evil in the course of human history

Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us

Reframing Her Judith E. McKinlay, 2004 How does one read the story of Sarah and Hagar or Jezebel and Rahab today if one is a woman reader situated in a postcolonial society This is the question undergirding this work which considers a selection of biblical texts in which women have significant roles Employing both a gender and a postcolonial lens it asks sharp questions both of the interests embedded in the texts themselves and of their impact upon contemporary women readers Whereas most postcolonial studies have been undertaken from the perspective of the colonized this work reads the texts from the position of a settler descendant and is an attempt to engage with the disquietening and challenging questions that reading from such a location raises Letters from early settler women in New Zealand contemporary fiction and personal reminiscence become tools for the task complementing those traditionally employed in critical biblical readings

The Apocalypse Deception Fred Harding, 2016-10-19 THE EXPLOSIVE EXPOS OF THE BOOK OF REVELATION IN WHICH FOR ALMOST 2000 YEARS CHRISTIANS HAVE BEEN FOOLED BY A MONSTROUS DECEPTION The Apocalypse also known as the Book of Revelation is the last book of the New Testament It begins with these words The Revelation of Jesus Christ which God gave unto him to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John Who bare record of the word of God and of the testimony of Jesus Christ and of all things that he saw Revelation 1 1 KJV Those words are not those of Jesus Christ contrary to the claims of its author Transmitted through an unnamed angel they are part of a monstrous deception that has plagued Christianity ever since they were first penned Furthermore contrary to popular belief the Apocalypse was not written by John the Apostle the son of Zebedee nor is it This book expands upon the scholarly work The Apocalypse written by R H Charles in 1920 the famous scholar widely recognised as the greatest authority of his time in matters of Jewish eschatology and apocrypha His translations of the Book of Enoch and the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs especially are still widely used Do not be deceived The Apocalypse was rejected for seven hundred years by the churches of Asia Minor where the book originated and with good reason The book of Revelation unleashes a vision of a gore fest at the End of Time a relentless apocalyptic nightmare badly written repetitive and self contradictory In chapter after chapter it details outlandish horrors the supposed fate that imminently will befall the enemies of God As you will discover if you dare to read this book these are not the words of Jesus Do not be scared of the horrors described in the Apocalypse because the prophecies therein described were made by a false prophet and they are completely untrue Instead one should rely on the prophecies as told by Jesus in the Gospels and the prophets of the Hebrew scriptures such as that of Daniel Ezekiel Zechariah Micah and Isaiah to provide the information that we need understand this great event in human history The Second Coming of Christ and the Kingdom of God Who then wrote the Apocalypse He is the same person that John the Elder confronted in the Roman Baths of Ephesus and called the enemy of the Truth If as I will show that the Book of Revelation was written by this person then clearly he is an enemy of the Truth the Apocalypse cannot be included the Christian Canon of the New Testament Now take heed of a prophecy that Jesus made about a future time after his crucifixion Watch out that you are not deceived For many will come in my name claiming I am he and The time is near Do not follow them Luke 21 8 Do not follow anyone who says the time is near Jesus says Do not be deceived he says Yet this is exactly what the writer of the Apocalypse says Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this scroll because the time is near Revelation 22 10 As a Christian as long as you adhere to the words of Jesus and the Apostles recorded in the Gospels and the other writings of the New Testament then the council of John the Elder the disciple that Jesus loved and the author of the Fourth Gospel will serve you well Quoting the words of Jesus If you continue in My word you are truly My disciples Then you will know the truth and the truth will set you free John 8 32 May this book set you free but this it will not do unless you are willing look past your prejudices seek the truth and read it You will not regret it if you do
