The Eliminators Urban Guerrillas :

Out of the Margins Liangyan Ge, 2001-09-30 The novel Water Margin Shuihu zhuan China's earliest full length narrative in vernacular prose first appeared in print in the sixteenth century The tale of one hundred and eight bandit heroes evolved from a long oral tradition in its novelized form it played a pivotal role in the rise of Chinese vernacular fiction which flourished during the late Ming 1368 1644 and Qing 1644 1911 periods Liangyan Ge's multidimensional study considers the evolution of Water Margin and the rise of vernacular fiction against the background of the vernacularization of premodern Chinese literature as a whole This gradual and arduous process as the book convincingly shows was driven by sustained contact and interaction between written culture and popular orality Ge examines the stylistic and linguistic features of the novel against those of other works of early Chinese vernacular literature stories in particular revealing an accretion of features typical of different historical periods and a prolonged and cumulative process of textualization In addition to providing a meticulous philological study his work offers a new reading of the novel that interprets some of its salient characteristics in terms of the interplay between audience storytellers and men of letters associated with popular orality
