The First One The One Trilogy :

The Recipe for Death Box Set I Tawdra Kandle, Tamara Kendall, 2017-10-31 My Father and I David

Caron, 2011-02-23 It is a living museum of a long gone Jewish life and supposedly a testimony to the success of the French model of social integration It is a communal home where gay men and women are said to stand in defiance of the French model of social integration It is a place of freedom and tolerance where people of color and lesbians nevertheless feel unwanted and where young Zionists from the suburbs gather every Sunday and sometimes harass Arabs It is a hot topic in the press and on television It is open to the world and open for business It is a place to be seen and a place of invisibility It is like a home to me a place where I feel both safe and out of place and where my father felt comfortable and alienated at the same time It is a place of nostalgia innovation shame pride and anxiety where the local and the global intersect for better and for worse And for better and for worse it is a French neighborhood from My Father and I Mixing personal memoir urban studies cultural history and literary criticism as well as a generous selection of photographs My Father and I focuses on the Marais the oldest surviving neighborhood of Paris It also beautifully reveals the intricacies of the relationship between a Jewish father and a gay son each claiming the same neighborhood as his own Beginning with the history of the Marais and its significance in the construction of a French national identity David Caron proposes a rethinking of community and looks at how Jews Chinese immigrants and gays have made the Marais theirs These communities embody in their engagement of urban space a daily challenge to the French concept of universal citizenship that denies them all political legitimacy Caron moves from the strictly French context to more theoretical issues such as social and political archaism immigration and diaspora survival and haunting the public private divide and group friendship as metaphor for unruly and dynamic forms of community and founding disasters such as AIDS and the Holocaust Caron also tells the story of his father a Hungarian Jew and Holocaust survivor who immigrated to France and once called the Marais home The Lives of Texts Andrzej

Kowalczyk, Katarzyna Pisarska, 2014-07-24 The Lives of Texts Exploring the Metaphor examines various instances of textual subsistence implied by the title Drawing on the parallel between a text and a living organism the contributors analyze various literary texts ranging from the Middle Ages to postmodernity as well as film adaptations and the graphic novel Apart from the works of canonical writers attention is also drawn to some long forgotten authors along with the most recent instances of popular literature and culture The exploration of the title metaphor allows the contributors to trace life like phenomena e g textual birth maturation dissemination death and resurrection in the texts of writers so remote from each other as Layamon Thomas More Mary Shelley Charles Williams Ursula Le Guin A S Byatt Peter Ackroyd Iain Banks J K Rowling or Neil Gaiman

Age of Aquarius Tawdra Kandle, 2017-04-07 1967 It was the Summer of Love But in the midst of peace and flower power a group of hippies unleash an unspeakable horror that will threaten the future of the planet The King Quartet The Serendipity Series Recipe for Death Books Every battle Every win Every loss All the intrigue pain and mystery it all leads here
