The Doctrine Of The Christian Life A Theology Of Lordship:

The Doctrine of the Christian Life John M. Frame, 2008 The third volume of Frame's Theology of Lordship series this book focuses on biblical ethics In an age of ethical relativism and suspicion of authority how can we know what is good virtuous or just Frame surveys non Christian ethical traditions before setting forth a solidly Christian ethical method By clarifying biblical norms life situations and personal dimensions he presents a model for decision making that honors God in all aspects of life Discussions range from natural law and conflict of duties to detailed explorations of the Ten Commandments in connection with questions surrounding worship the Sabbath church and state respect for life and truth sexuality and the relation of Christ to culture God's Gifts for the Christian Life — Part 1 J. Alexander Rutherford, 2021-11-05 How are Christians to think about the intellectual tasks that make up everyday life in the modern world It is clear we are not to do so as the world does but what does it look like to engage Christianly in our thinking In the first part of the series God's Gifts for the Christian Life J Alexander Rutherford shows how the Bible equips us to confidently engage in the interpretation of and engagement with the Word of God and the world he has created In God's rich mercy he has enabled us to know him his word and his world In a world where it is preposterous and arrogant to claim to know anything certainly we are in desperate need of renewed foundations In God's Gifts for the Christian Life see some of the ways that God through his limitless power has made available to us everything necessary for life and godliness 2 Peter 1:3 Themelios, Volume 34, Issue 2 D. The Gift of Reading — Part 1 J. Alexander Rutherford, 2019-09-30 If the Word of God is our anchor in the chaos of this world if it is our assurance that we can know the world and God its creator we need confidence that we can understand this Word Reading and applying the Bible is essential to every facet of Christian life and ministry yet our ability to do so is under attack from a myriad of directions In Postmodern philosophy the possibility of communication is dismissed let alone communication from God In Biblical studies the amount of knowledge required to come to firm conclusions concerning the meaning and application of the Bible grows every day However the Bible is not so pessimistic about its accessibility Instead it presents itself as a clear word sufficient to guide and encourage Christians in every area of life Beginning with the Bible s own claims to clarity and sufficiency The Gift of Reading Part 1 outlines the practice of reading the Bible in order to understand and apply it The Gift of Reading Part 2 will go further into the theory that lies beneath the methodology unpacked in Part 1

Alexander Rutherford, 2025-01-31 By all indications the Western Church is facing a crisis of pastoral ministry Pastoral ministry is on a trajectory of decline despite the fact that God has opened a massive mission field on our doorstep a mission field that requires workers Moreover we continue to export the same model of ministry to the global Church inviting them to join us in the state of crisis In Matthew 9:37-38 Jesus invites his disciples to consider the vast harvest of souls God has prepared a harvest awaiting workers If we want to see our churches healthy and our neighbours come to know Jesus we must be interested in God's work to prepare workers for the harvest This book is an attempt to repair what is broken to contribute to the repair of pastoral ministry I am convinced that no problem is more urgent to the church globally than this one yet I am also convinced the solution to this problem is quite simple This book argues that our crisis is the result of swapping the biblical vision of pastoral ministry for a poor substitute and our failure to raise disciples in our local church Part 1 identifies significant reasons why we are in a crisis Part 2 lays a biblical foundation for rebuilding a biblical model of pastoral ministry and Part 3 shows how this foundation can be built upon in the life of a local church The Serpent and the Serpent Slayer Andrew David Naselli, 2020-10-06 Although a story with a serpent a damsel in distress and a serpent slayer may sound like just another fairy tale it is in fact part of the greatest true account ever told the Bible Epic tales resonate with readers because they echo the greatest story In this new addition to the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series Andrew David Naselli traces the theme of snakes and dragons from the serpent in the garden to the devouring dragon in Revelation culminating with the return of the King New and seasoned Christians alike will experience afresh the captivating unifying narrative behind all stories as they embark on a journey through the Bible with a trusted biblical scholar Covenant Lord and Cultic Boundary Michael Beck, 2023-02-02 The Reformed Two Kingdom project has generated a great deal of literature However this literature is often characterized by inflamed rhetoric Further though it is standard fare to assume that Kline was the architect of the project in reality there has been very little scholarly examination of this point In response Kline's system is analyzed through the means of a dialectical discourse with three differing models within the Reformed tradition the Theonomist Perspectivalist and Dooyeweerdian schools Through this means the study keeps away from surface level polemics and instead directs readers to the critically important substructural level of current discussions While clarifying some of the key differences between Kline and his interlocutors often overlooked points of nuance are also highlighted These points are shown to be important in that they present the potential to lessen frustration and impasse in the ongoing dialogue

Evangelism in the 21st Century Luis Alexandre Ribeiro Branco,2015-12-12 Postmodern European society has been heavily influenced by the principles of nihilism and relativism This has also permeated several Christian communities and upon a continent that is in the midst of slowly replacing its Christian heritage for more humanistic principles I believe that the church must strive to understand this dynamic period in which we live This can only occur if the faithful seek to reaffirm the power of Scriptural decrees in order to regain ground and lift a prophetic dedicated to guiding this generation back to Christ In order to achieve this objective we must be prepared as Christians to engage in thought provoking debates in the proper arenas such as schools colleges seminaries and universities both as students scholars and teachers to present the world histories from a biblical perspective It is also necessary to understand the subjective culture of Gospel rejection that dominates those fields and look for a form of making our way around it and gain credibility Unfortunately this is neither an easy nor quick approach it may require years even decades to regain the right to be heard 40 Questions About Church Membership and Discipline Jeremy M. Luis Alexandre Ribeiro Branco, 2014-09-29 When we think about postmodernism we have to consider its implication in every aspect of society and none would doubt that homosexuality is one of these major implication especially for the contemporary church The influence of relativism and the paradigm shift in humanity made homosexuality not just acceptable but in many cases a norm For a long time the church barricaded herself not only behind her Jewish christian worldview and theological values but also behind the absolutes of science that just has to agree that in the beginning there were only male and female For long time homosexuality has been viewed as a behavior option but what about if science has come up with a new discovery so called Gay Gene That is exactly what we want to discuss in this essay Delighting in the Old Testament
