The Garden Party and Other Stories Katherine Mansfield, 2007-03-29. Fifteen exquisite tales from one of the world's greatest writers of the short story. Innovative, startlingly perceptive, and aglow with colour, these stories were written towards the end of Katherine Mansfield's tragically short life. Many are set in the author's native New Zealand, others in England and the French Riviera. All are revelations of the unspoken, half-understood emotions that make up everyday experience: from the blackly comic The Daughters of the Late Colonel and the short sharp sketch Miss Brill in which a lonely woman's precarious sense of self is brutally destroyed, to the vivid impressionistic evocation of family life in At the Bay. All that I write, Mansfield said, all that I am is on the borders of the sea. It is a kind of playing.

The garden party, and other stories [by] Katherine Mansfield Katherine Mansfield, 1922 Katherine Mansfield and the Garden Party and Other Stories Gerri Kimber, Todd Martin, 2022. The last collection of short stories published in her lifetime. The Garden Party and Other Stories would solidify Katherine Mansfield's place as the most prominent modernist short story writer of her generation. Early reviewers of the collection commented on the similarities it shared with her previous collection Bliss and Other Stories; however, while contemporary reviews were mixed, many emphasised the psychological power of her stories, praising how she was able to bring her characters to life in a way simple action could not. While it contains some of Mansfield

s most sophisticated and well loved stories several of the stories in The Garden Party initially appeared in the Sphere and thus were often dismissed as inferior Mansfield herself felt some of these stories fell short of her desired effect though recent scholarship has revealed their greater complexity The essays in this volume by both seasoned and newer Mansfield scholars work to continue this conversation The collection also includes Mansfield inspired short fiction two translations of memorial poems dedicated to Mansfield by Chinese and French contemporaries with accompanying notes and a recently re discovered book review by Mansfield In addition Sydney Janet Kaplan provides a reflection on her personal meeting with Christopher Isherwood a writer heavily influenced by the life and work of Mansfield
