

"Movie critic" is a misnomer. J. Hoberman is simply the best historian, full-stop, of that notorious decade when politics instilled culture and movies invaded reality.
Cultural history doesn't get any better—or scarier—than this.

Suraci, 2019-01-17 In 1961

homosexuality is a crime punishable by up to seventeen years in prison That doesn't stop soldiers Philip Greco and John Fitzgerald from falling in love The two men are serving in the US Army in Germany during the Berlin Crisis They become friends at first and then slowly and tentatively their relationship blossoms Working around the obstacles in their path Philip and John travel through Europe together and discover their dream place to live after their discharge Majorca When John is discharged four months earlier than Philip the latter convinces him to return to the States But when Philip arrives in Los Angeles he finds John's life has changed dramatically since they parted Now Philip must find his way in the world and see whether he can build a dream life of his own Wow what a great read Love and sex in the army as never before told Europe at the time when La Dolce Vita was the lifestyle I knew the author in his days in Rome Wow again Carroll Baker Oscar nominee for Baby Doll

The Power of Movies Colin McGinn, 2007-02-13 How is watching a movie similar to dreaming What goes on in our minds when we become absorbed in a movie How does looking into a movie screen allow us to experience the thoughts and feelings of a movie's characters These and related questions are at the heart of The Power of Movies a thoughtful invigorating and remarkably accessible book about a phenomenon seemingly beyond reach of our understanding Colin McGinn an ingenious philosopher who thinks like a laser and writes like a dream according to Steven Pinker enhances our understanding of both movies and ourselves in this book of rare and refreshing insight

Movies and the Mind William Indick, 2015-01-09 The latent symbolism in film imagery can be psychoanalyzed just like the imagery in dreams This work applies to film the psychoanalytic techniques of Sigmund Freud Erik Erikson Carl Jung Alfred Adler Joseph Campbell Otto Rank and Rollo May providing a fundamental understanding of film symbols and structure It offers a comprehensive and eclectic approach to film analysis using a broad variety of theories and examples from both classic and contemporary movies from Dracula 1930 to American Beauty 1999 The final chapter applies all the previously discussed techniques to one film Malcolm X 1992 The work boasts a filmography and bibliography and is illustrated with film stills Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Dreamlife Rufus Goodwin, 2004-06 Where do dreams come from By what light do we see them What lights a dream Dream theorists have been more interested in the content and implications of dreams or when more scientifically inclined their physiology They have rarely considered the light perhaps fearing where the search might lead Rufus Goodwin however advances courageously where angels fear to tread With subtle intelligence persistence and wit Goodwin pursues his question in short lucid chapters through thickets of competing theories He takes an evenhanded approach consulting those who work in dream laboratories poets and writers and those dreamers who like himself and us have pondered dreams and their meaning in life In the end he arrives at the concept of dreamlight as a bridge between body and mind This light however is not what it seems and has nothing to do with the brain's electrical activity Rather it is living light a transpersonal element in our lives that says much about the nature and possibility of human consciousness Rufus Goodwin will change and deepen your understanding of consciousness and dreams Contents Dreamland

Hard Science of Dreams Dreams of the Blind Dream Idiom The Pact against Vitalism Medieval Dream Theory The Skunk Dream Freud's Fraud Is Life a Dream Dreamlight Bridge between Body and Mind Transpersonal Powers of Dreams Dreams As Windows of Light A Workbook The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 1 Henry MacAdam, Duncan Cooper, 2020-11-13 Using previously unpublished correspondence and personal journal entries from screenwriter Abraham Polonsky neglected notices in Variety and other Hollywood trade publications and a wide range of published sources this narrative backstory of rival movie productions of The Gladiators vs Spartacus documents that intense competition with greater precision and clarity than any other existing account The key role that this little known chapter of Hollywood's blacklist history played in connection with Dalton Trumbo's successful effort to win screen credit for Spartacus is now for the first time available to film historians and lay readers A companion study Volume 2 is devoted to Abraham Polonsky's rediscovered screenplay The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media The Last Great American Picture Show Alexander Horwath, Thomas Elsaesser, Noel King, 2004 This publication is a major evaluation of the 1970s American cinema including cult film directors such as Bogdanovich Altman and Peckinpah The World of the John Birch Society D. Mulloy, 2014-06-27 As far as members of the hugely controversial John Birch Society were concerned the Cold War revealed in stark clarity the loyalties and disloyalties of numerous important Americans including Dwight Eisenhower John Kennedy and Earl Warren Founded in 1958 as a force for conservative political advocacy the Society espoused the dangers of enemies foreign and domestic including the Soviet Union organizers of the US civil rights movement and government officials who were deemed soft on communism in both the Republican and Democratic parties Sound familiar In The World of the John Birch Society author D J Mulloy reveals the tactics of the Society in a way they've never been understood before allowing the reader to make the connections to contemporary American politics up to and including the Tea Party These tactics included organized dissemination of broad based accusations and innuendo political brinksmanship within the Republican Party and frequent doomsday predictions regarding world events At the heart of the organization was Robert Welch a charismatic writer and organizer who is revealed to have been the lifeblood of the Society's efforts The Society has seen its influence recede from the high water mark of 1970s but the organization still exists today Throughout The World of the John Birch Society the reader sees the very tenets and practices in play that make the contemporary Tea Party so effective on a local level Indeed without the John Birch Society paving the way the Tea Party may have encountered a dramatically different political terrain on its path to power

Goodbye Cinema, Hello Cinephilia Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2010-10-15 The esteemed film critic Jonathan Rosenbaum has brought global cinema to American audiences for the last four decades His incisive writings on individual filmmakers define film culture as a diverse and ever evolving practice unpredictable yet subject to analyses just as diversified as his own discriminating tastes For Rosenbaum there is no high or low cinema only more interesting or less interesting films and the pieces collected here from an appreciation of Marilyn Monroe's intelligence to a classic discussion on and with Jean Luc Godard amply testify to his broad intellect and multi faceted talent Goodbye Cinema Hello Cinephilia gathers together over fifty examples of Rosenbaum's criticism from the past four decades each of which demonstrates his passion for the way we view movies as well as how we write about them Charting our changing concerns with the interconnected issues that surround video DVDs the Internet and new media the writings collected here also highlight Rosenbaum's polemics concerning the digital age From the rediscovery and recirculation of classic films to the social and aesthetic impact of technological changes Rosenbaum doesn't disappoint in assembling a magisterial cast of little known filmmakers as well as the familiar faces and iconic names that have helped to define our era As we move into this new decade of moviegoing one in which Hollywood will continue to feel the shockwaves of the digital age Jonathan Rosenbaum remains a valuable guide Goodbye Cinema Hello Cinephilia is a consummate collection of his work not simply for fans of this seminal critic but for all those open to the wide variety of films he embraces and helps us to elucidate

Hollywood's America Steven Mintz, Randy W. Roberts, 2010-03 Fully revised updated and extended this compilation of interpretive essays and primary documents teaches students to read films as cultural artifacts within the contexts of actual past events A new edition of this classic textbook which ties movies into the broader narrative of US and film history Ten new articles which consider recently released films as well as issues of gender and ethnicity Well organized within a chronological framework

Lewis,2019-06-15 In When the Movies Mattered Jonathan Kirshner and Jon Lewis gather a remarkable collection of authors to revisit the unique era in American cinema that was New Hollywood Ten eminent contributors some of whom wrote about the New Hollywood movement as it unfolded across the 1960s and 1970s assess the convergence of film industry developments and momentous social and political changes that created a new type of commercial film that reflected those revolutionary influences in American life Even as New Hollywood first took shape film industry insiders and commentators alike realized its significance At the time Pauline Kael compared the New Hollywood to the tangled bitter flowering of American letters in the 1850s and David Thomson dubbed the era the decade when movies mattered Thomson's words provide the impetus for this volume in which a cohort of seasoned film critics and scholars who came of age watching the movies of this era reflect upon and reconsider this golden age in American filmmaking Contributors Molly Haskell Heather Hendershot J Hoberman George Kouvaros Phillip Lopate Robert Pippin David Sterritt David Thomson The 1960s on Film Jim Willis, Mark Miller, 2021-10-11 The 1960s on Film tells the narrative of the 1960s through the lens of the movie camera analyzing 10 films that focus on the people events and issues of the decade Films create both an impression of and at times for younger audiences a primary definition of events people and issues of an era The 1960s on Film examines the 1960s as the decade was presented in ten films that focused on that decade This book analyzes both what the films have to say about the era and how close they come to accurately depicting it For example films such as Mississippi Burning and Selma tell the story of racial conflict and hope for reconciliation in the 1960s Other films such as The Right Stuff and Hidden Figures show the deep fascination America had at that time with the burgeoning space program and NASA while Easy Rider analyzes the role of rock music and drugs among young people of the decade The Deer Hunter studies the controversies surrounding the war in Vietnam

The Limits of Auteurism Nicholas Godfrey, 2018-05-10 The New Hollywood era of the late 1960s and early 1970s has become one of the most romanticized periods in motion picture history celebrated for its stylistic boldness thematic complexity and the unshackling of directorial ambition The Limits of Auteurism aims to challenge many of these assumptions Beginning with the commercial success of Easy Rider in 1969 and ending two years later with the critical and commercial failure of that film's twin progeny The Last Movie and The Hire Hand Nicholas Godfrey surveys a key moment that defined the subsequent aesthetic parameters of American commercial art cinema The book explores the role that contemporary critics played in determining how the movies of this period were understood and how in turn strategies of distribution influenced critical responses and dictated the conditions of entry into the rapidly codifying New Hollywood canon Focusing on a small number of industrially significant films this new history advances our understanding of this important moment of transition from Classical to contemporary modes of production
