Tammy Kushnir

A detailed collage artwork by Tammy Kushnir. The central focus is a small, realistic bird, possibly a warbler, perched on a dark, textured rectangular block that resembles a book or a piece of wood. The bird is facing right. To the left of the bird, there is a complex, tangled structure made of thin, light-colored fibers or grass, resembling a nest or a decorative cage. This structure is supported by a horizontal wooden beam. The entire composition is set against a blurred green background. In the foreground, there are various found objects, including a large, ornate metal piece with a circular pattern, a small wooden disc, and some loose white fibers. The overall style is artistic and evocative, using everyday objects to create a new, meaningful scene.
