Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas,2017-03-07

This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S

Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery

Whodunit? Rosemary Herbert, 2003-05-08 Who populates the pages of crime and mystery writing Who are the characters we willingly follow into the mystery genre s uneasy imaginative territory And who created those characters in the first place What life experience and expertise informs their work What are the sources of their themes regional accents and even the axes that some grind Why do some wish to give us a good laugh while others seem hell bent on making us shudder Whodunit answers these questions and more Here mystery expert Rosemary Herbert brings together enlightening and entertaining information on hundreds of classic and contemporary characters and authors Some such as P D James Ian Rankin Sherlock Holmes and Kinsey Millhone appear in individual entries Still more keep company in articles about characters we admire such as the Clerical Sleuth and in pieces about those we love to hate including the Femme Fatale and Con Artist There is even an article on a figure that haunts so many great works of mystery The Corpse Drawing on the Edgar Award nominated volume The Oxford Companion to Crime Mystery Writing Herbert adds 101 new entries on the hottest new names in works ranging from puzzling whodunits to chilling crime novels
