The Fifth D When Difference Ends In Murder:

The Artistic Dimension Keith Bodner, 2013-08-29 This volume presents a collection of essays aimed at further integration of literary analysis in the study of the Hebrew Bible In three sections Bodner studies a range of texts in order to illustrate that literary analysis has value for exploring numerous issues in the discipline including text critical problems the Deuteronomistic History and Chronicles Beginning with a discussion of how literary analysis is a vital yet neglected component of textual criticism Bodner then offers a sustained engagement with one particular section of the Hebrew Bible the so called ark narrative of 1 Samuel 4 6 Other areas of the Hebrew Bible are subsequently explored including a sample of the historiographic material in the Deuteronomistic History and a lengthy text from the book of Proverbs Part four turns to the often neglected books of 1 2 Chronicles illustrating how the Chronicler s work is a congenial site for literary study The assembled essays petition for a heightened awareness of the artistic achievement of the Hebrew Bible and illustrate that literary thinking is a necessary component for biblical interpretation

The 5th Brother Andrew Stark, 2011-02-01 In Gambrills Maryland a small town just outside Washington D C families are dying at the hands of a serial killer known only as The Creeper So far twelve victims have been found mutilated and in his wake one boy escaped Now the boy has grown up and has been released from a lifetime secure in a mental institute just as the murders have begun once again It is up to D C s top detectives to track The Creeper down ending the terror once and for all As they follow the macabre trail of evidence will they discover that the present homicides are tied to the grisly crimes of the past And can they find The Creeper before he strikes again or is the murderer someone else
