Summer at the Lake Andrew M. are in formal verse i.e. in rhyming form and some are written in free verse. The topics in the poems include philosophy, nature, love, some real life incidents, stereotypes prevailing in the society, imagination of the poet, day to day life of people, etc. There are a lot of things the poet has expressed in his poems which he could not have ever expressed elsewhere. The poet hopes that his works will reach the hearts of his readers. Out of all the lines he has written, he wishes at least the readers should remember the following:

With nectar of love occlude heart's moral gap
Sculpt a realm safe as a mother's lap
Besides chasing lust or a beautiful face
A lot is left to be given to this race
Life in state of oblivion is greatest curse Purest love in the existence is between person and its purpose
