Tough Call Hardhitting Phone Pranks:

Tough Call Mike Loew, 2015-08-25 Mike Loew goes undercover in this collection of transcripts of calls he's made to a variety of organizations. Every word in the book is from Mike's real conversations with a temp agency inquiring about hiring slaves, a sausage factory as a vegetarian, a yoga center as a man seeking treatment for a bone sticking out of his arm, the office of The Drug Czar seeking the man behind the title, a car dealership as the seller of a car possessed by an evil spirit.

SPIN, 2002-06 From the concert stage to the dressing room, from the recording studio to the digital realm, SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting, provocative interviews, and a discerning critical ear. With dynamic photography, bold graphic design, and informed irreverence, the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds. Whether covering what's new or what's next, SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks. The Publishers Weekly, 1972 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2000-06 American Book Publishing

Record R.R. Bowker Company, 1978 The Guardian Index, 2002 Library Journal, 2000-04 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 The Laugh-a-Day Book of Bloopers, Quotes & Good Clean Jokes Jim Kraus, 2012 A 365-day humor collection; each day includes a joke, a wacky church bulletin blunder, and a humorous quote. The Man of Many Fathers Roy Wood Jr., 2025-10-28 From comedian, Emmy-nominated writer and producer, and former Daily Show correspondent, Roy Wood Jr. an unforgettable laugh-out-loud funny memoir revealing that sometimes the best advice comes from the most surprising teachers. Honest, raw, and an absolute treat to read. TREVOR NOAH Insightful and memorable. CHELSEA HANDLER Roy didn't just write a book; he left a mark. STEPHEN A. SMITH When Roy Wood Jr. held his baby boy for the first time, he was relieved that his son was happy and healthy, but he felt a strange mix of joy and apprehension. Roy's own father, a voice of the civil rights movement in Birmingham, Alabama, had passed away when Roy was sixteen. There were gaps in the lessons passed down from father to son, and holding his own child, Roy wondered: Have I managed to fill in those blanks to learn the lessons I will one day need to teach my boy? So Roy looked back to figure out who had taught him lessons throughout his life and which he could pass down to his son. Some of his father's figures were clear: like a colorful man from Philadelphia navigating life after prison who taught Roy the value of having a vision for his life, or his fellow comedians who showed him what it took to make it as a working stand-up performer. Others were less obvious: from the teenage friends who convinced him to race leaf boats carrying lit matches in the middle of a drought, to a drug-addicted restaurant colleague who played hoops while Roy scoured dirty dishes, to big names in Hollywood like Trevor Noah and more. In The Man of Many Fathers, Roy shares what he's learned with humor and heart, delivering the most memorable lessons such as how to channel anger through a more successful outlet, hint: never ever try to outfox a single mom; how not to get caught snitching, hint: never snitch; and how to become a good man and a good dad, hint: listen to your fathers. Religious Humor in Evangelical Christian and Mormon Culture Elisha McIntyre, 2018-01-25 Incorporating perspectives from religious studies, humor studies, cultural and film studies, and theology.

as well as original data from textual analysis and the voices of religious comedians this book critically analyses the experiences of believers who appreciate that their faith is not necessarily a barrier to their laughter It is often thought that religion and humor are incompatible but Religious Humor in Evangelical Christian and Mormon Culture shows that humor is not only a popular means of entertainment but also a way in which an individual or community expresses their identity and values Elisha McIntyre argues that believers embrace their sense of humor actively producing and consciously consuming comic entertainment that reflects their own experiences This process is not however without conflict The book argues that there are specific characteristics that indicate a unique kind of humor that may be called religious humor Through an examination of religious humor found in stand up comedy television sitcoms comedy film and satirical cartoons and drawing on interview data the book outlines the main considerations that Christians take into account when choosing their comedy entertainment These include questions about ideology blasphemy taboos around the body and the motives behind the joke

Married... With Children vs. the World Richard Gurman, 2024-04-23 A rollicking account of the groundbreaking show from one of the show's producers featuring the voices of the stars creators and executives involved with bringing it to life I had the pleasure of working with Richard Gurman for eleven years When he sent me his new book Married With Children vs the World I figured it would be a trip down memory lane So I was stunned by some revelations I never knew And reminded how brilliant much of the writing was What a time that was If you liked Married With Children then you should read this book You're in for a treat Ed O'Neill Married With Children burst onto the airwaves with a full frontal attack on the myth of domestic tranquility depicted in family comedies since the dawn of TV The outlier series created by two rebellious writers given carte blanche from a fledgling FOX became one of the longest running live action sitcoms in television history and forever changed the way married life was portrayed on the very networks it so scathingly satirized But it was far from smooth sailing as the creators bucked up against Barry Diller then CEO of FOX on everything from casting to content and then butted heads with network standards as they sought to shatter traditional broadcast norms Reading Married With Children vs the World jolted me right back into the mindset where our little show was the rock n roll of sitcoms fighting to get heard in an easy listening world Richard Gurman who was there for the whole ride digs deep into the joys and frustrations of the entire experience and turns it up loud Katey Sagal Married With Children writer producer Richard Gurman takes us behind the scenes of this boundary breaking show to reveal how its inner workings were at times as disruptive and contentious yet at other times as hysterical and raunchy as the Bundy family themselves Featuring exclusive interviews with the cast including Ed O Neill and Katey Sagal media moguls network executives writers directors critics and even the woman who was so offended by one episode she launched a sponsor boycott that almost got the series canceled Married With Children vs the World celebrates the rebellious satirical vision of the show and the battle to keep it alive that paved the way for the tremendous diversity in family comedy style we see today Not only is this an accurate chronicle of both families on either side of the camera but what should also serve as a valuable lesson of never giving up on a dream Michael G Moye Co Creator I had almost as much fun reading Married with Children vs the World as I had working on the show Almost Richard Gurman chronicles from his vantage point inside the writers room and the sound booth how we broke the china in the family sitcom kitchen and upended the television industry by doing so What could be more fun than that David Garrison The American Mercury George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken, 1925 The Road Less Taken Kathryn Bertine, 2014-09-01 In The Road Less Taken Kathryn Bertine takes readers through her journey of striving to become a professional cyclist in her mid 30s Her essays explore the twists and turns on life s unexpected roads via bicycle but also the larger meaning of what it means to heed one s inner compass and search for a personal true north With her signature wit and humor Bertine s essays travel far beyond the bike lane resonating with anyone who has ever dared to try and turn their dreams into a reality The Minds Behind the Games Patrick Hickey, Jr., 2018-04-04 Featuring interviews with the creators of 36 popular video games including Deus Ex Night Trap Mortal Kombat Wasteland and NBA Jam this book gives a behind the scenes look at the creation of some of the most influential and iconic and sometimes forgotten games of all time Recounting endless hours of painstaking development the challenges of working with mega publishers and the uncertainties of public reception the interviewees reveal the creative processes that produced some of gaming s classic titles I'm Not High Jim Breuer, 2010-10-05 With his goofy smile sleepy eyes and stoner s laugh Jim Breuer might not appear to be the most introspective comedian out there The fact that he made his mark playing Goat Boy on Saturday Night Live and a recalcitrant toker in the stoner classic Half Baked doesn t help his reputation at all But in I m Not High we meet a whole new Jim Breuer the Jim who tours the country with his whole family in tow the Jim who cares for his ailing eighty five year old father the Jim who considers himself a deeply spiritual person I m Not High reveals the complex man behind the simpleminded persona bringing to life true stories from a career that has spanned two riotous yet somehow semi righteous decades Jim dishes on everything from the SNL years to his early adventures in film The cast of characters in I m Not High includes Chris Farley Dave Chapelle and Tracy Morgan who all taught Jim lasting lessons about the high stakes game of fame He also chronicles the constant role his family has played in keeping him honest Whether he s arguing with his wife about religion Is it okay to believe in God but not believe in church trying to take care of his kids or helping his father get through the day with his dignity in tact it s clear that some of his best material comes from his best moments as a son and a dad and a husband Watch a Video The American Mercury Henry Louis Mencken,1925
