King, 2014-03-26 Spanning the different phases of the English Reformation from William Tyndale s 1525 translation of the Bible to the death of Elizabeth I in 1603 John King s magisterial anthology brings together a range of texts inaccessible in standard collections of early modern works The readings demonstrate how Reformation ideas and concerns pervade well known writings by Spenser Shakespeare Sidney and Marlowe and help foreground such issues as the relationship between church and state the status of women and resistance to unjust authority Plays dialogues and satires in which clever laypersons outwit ignorant clerics counterbalance texts documenting the controversy over the permissibility of theatrical performance Moving biographical and autobiographical narratives from John Foxe s Book of Martyrs and other sources document the experience of Protestants such as Anne Askew and Hugh Latimer both burned at the stake of recusants Jesuit missionaries and many others In this splendid collection the voices ring forth from a unique moment when the course of British history was altered by the fate and religious convictions of the five queens Catherine Parr Lady Jane Grey Mary I Mary Queen of Scots and Elizabeth I Darkness, Depression, and Descent in Anglo-Saxon England Ruth Wehlau, 2019-05-20 This collection of essays examines the motifs of darkness depression and descent in both literal and figurative manifestations within a variety of Anglo Saxon texts including the Old English Consolation of Philosophy Beowulf Guthlac The Junius Manuscript The Wonders of the East and The Battle of Maldon Essays deal with such topics as cosmic emptiness descent into the grave and recurrent grief In their analyses the essays reveal the breadth of this imagery in Anglo Saxon literature as it is used to describe thought and emotion as well as the limits to knowledge and perception The volume investigates the intersection between the burgeoning interest in trauma studies and darkness and the representation of the mind or of emotional experience within Anglo Saxon literature Taking Shape Martina Droth, Penelope Curtis, 2009 This exhibition challenges the reasons why sculpture is usually considered alone in the gallery and the decorative arts are considered as part of a period setting It suggests that by breaking away from these conventional categories we can see how sculpture is also part of a spatial conversation and how furniture and fittings can be appreciated as unique works With five original essays and forty complete catalogue entries this publication both documents an exhibition and goes beyond it opening our eyes to the fluidity of formal language in the long eighteenth century and to the ways in which objects can change according to whether they are seen together or apart as mobile or fixed as two or three dimensional as ideal or as functional Book Jacket *The Complete Works of Thomas Otway: Venice preserv'd.
