Walls Built On Sand Migration Exclusion And Society In Kuwait:

Walls Built On Sand Anh Nga Longva, 2019-05-20 When Iraq invaded Kuwait in 1990 the sight of tens of thousands of non Kuwaiti Arabs Indians East Asians and Westerners fleeing or trapped under occupation made the outside world suddenly aware of a singular fact of Kuwaiti society that Kuwaitis are an absolute minority in their own country Basing her analysis on extensive fieldwork and archiv Arab Migrant Communities in the GCC Zahra Babar, 2017 This volume provides a series of empirically dense analyses of the historical and contemporary dynamics of Arab intra regional migration to the monarchies of the Persian Gulf and unravels the ways in which particular social and cultural practices of Arab migrants interact with the host states Among other things specific contributions allow us to consider the socioeconomic and political factors that have historically shaped the character of the Arab migratory experience the sorts of work opportunities that Arab migrants have sought in the region what their work conditions and lived experiences have been and whether we are able to discern any patterns of sociocultural integration for Arab non nationals Keeping the Faith in Exile: Kuwait-Coptic Orthodox Diasporic Spirituality Benjamin Daniel Crace, 2023-11-13 Few churches today can trace their lineage as far back as the Copts Their ancient traditions and rituals go back as far as the very beginnings of Christianity For centuries they have withstood many trials and martyrdoms But in the twentieth century many Copts left their homeland and scattered all over the Earth seeking prosperity and security Many went to the West but many others went to the heart of the Islamic world the Arabian Gulf They took their faith with them into this new and challenging environment In this context hybrid forms of spirituality emerged anchored in the ancient practices but sharpened by contact with globalisation This migrant spirituality characterises their stories and touches the heart of what it means to be a Christian sojourner today The Individual in International Law Anne Peters, Tom Sparks, 2024 The Individual in International Law collects the work of esteemed scholars to examine the effects of humanisation on international law and how individual status rights and obligations have changed the international legal system throughout history and into the present day Kuwait and Al-Sabah Rivka Azoulay, 2020-07-23 The Emirate of Kuwait hardly resembles the city State it was at the start of the 20th century The discovery of oil in 1938 rapidly transformed the tiny tribal sheikhdom of the Al Sabah into a modern oil producing state where by the early 1980s citizens were enjoying one of the highest standards of living in the world While much has been written on the reasons why and how the Al Sabah became a ruling dynasty little is known about the nature of their authority and its relationship to Kuwait s social structure Rivka Azoulay shows how despite the rapidity of change in the oil rich family run emirate it is the pre oil dynamics of social and political life that dictate how society operates The author shows that Kuwait s ambitious diversification plans to reduce oil dependence by 2035 require a renegotiation of the regime s pact with society which threatens the pre oil alliances upon which the Al Sabah s regime has been built Social Anthropology in the Arab World Abdullah Alajmi, Daniele Cantini, Irene Maffi, Imed Melliti, 2025-08-01 There are ongoing efforts in anthropology to decolonise its history and give fairer space to marginalised traditions This book examines the history and institutionalisation of anthropology in the Maghreb the Mashreq and the Gulf in an open and collaborative manner and from various perspectives Its primary focus is two fold first to reorient the anthropological focus towards studies conducted in the region particularly on the conditions conducive to the institutionalisation of anthropological knowledge second to shed light on anthropological studies in languages other than English offering different theoretical and epistemological perspectives Migration, Modernity and Social Transformation in South Asia Filippo Osella, Katy Gardner, 2004-05-25 Most of the papers presented at a workshop held at Sussex in January 2001 and some contributed articles previously published The International Migration Review, 1998 Middle East Report, 1998 Contemporary Architecture in the Arab States Udo Kultermann, 1999 Coupling case studies with over 100 never before seen illustrations this volume chronicles modern architectural developments in the nations of Egypt Iraq Morocco Algeria Tunisia Libya Syria Jordan Lebanon Saudi Arabia the Gulf States the United Arab Emirates Oman Yemen and Sudan All types of buildings are discussed from government offices and public spaces to houses of education and religion The featured examples include designs for both commercial and private client BOOK JACKET

The Arab Gulf States Sean Foley, 2010 Though Foley does not disagree that oil revenues have been important in preserving the power of Gulf autocrats he goes beyond popular stereotypes to identify other crucial forces that are conspiring to disrupt the status quo Migrants to the Metropolis Marie Price, Lisa Benton-Short, 2008-06-27 This collection examines contemporary global immigration trends and their effects on host cities The book focuses not just on cities with long established diverse populations such as New York Toronto and Sydney but also on cities such as Birmingham UK Amsterdam Washington DC Johannesburg Singapore and Dublin The Invisible Cage John T. Chalcraft, 2009 Uncovers the hidden history of Syrian migrant workers in Lebanon from independence to the present to break new ground in Middle East Studies and challenge existing ways of thinking about migration Life on the Outside Øivind Fuglerud, 1999 The Fuglerud study is a prototype for any anthropologist or political scientist working on a politicised radicalised Diaspora Ethnic Conflict Research Digest This book about a recent immigrant group Sri Lankan Tamils in a European liberal democracy Norway is paradigmatic for how the anthropology of a displaced population ought to be done anywhere in the western world Based on extensive field research in Norway and brief but insightful research in Sri Lanka Life on the Outside is an elegant and effective blend of theory and ethnography One of the very best in refugee studies to date E Valentine Daniel Columbia University This study of the Tamil diaspora is one of the first full ethnographic studies of a post colonial migrant community and a major contribution to the study of migration globalisation identity politics and long distance nationalism from an anthropological perspective Fuglerud's study traces the history of Tamil migration from the arrival of the economic migrants of the 1960s to the asylum seekers of the mid 1980s onwards He draws unnerving parallels between the status of the Tamil community in Sri Lanka as a beleaguered and persecuted minority waging a war of liberation and as a displaced marginalised and excluded refugee community Fuglerud argues that in the process of displacement particular aspects of Tamil culture marriage dowry chastity and ritual acquire a heightened significance He examines the contradictions and inconsistencies which characterise the Tamil refugee communities and the success of revolutionary Tamil nationalism in exile highlighting the transnational nature of identity politics Politics of the Modern Arab World Laleh Khalili, 2009 Covers the Arab world from Morocco to the borders of Iran with the focus primarily on the 20th Century By choosing a wide array of authors many of whom are from the region or from the non Anglophone world the full breadth of worldwide scholarship on the modern Arab world is on display Arab Studies Journal , 2005 Forum for Development Studies , 1995

Pakistani Diasporas Virinder S. Kalra, 2009 When compared to studies of the Indian diaspora or even in the wider framework of diaspora studies there is relatively meagre research about the Pakistani diaspora This collection is the first to bring together the extant literature and provide both a historical and contemporary set of accounts It is primarily about the processes associated with migration and settlement as seen from the receiving end Even though Roger Ballard and Junaid Rana offer accounts of Pakistan's political economy it is only in Frances Watkins chapter that migrant voices within Pakistan themselves speak Even in this chapter their life stories are focused on the impact of migration Though given the transnational frame in which many Pakistani diasporic communities live it is not really possible to solely focus on the place of settlement Indeed the shift from migration studies to transnational or diaspora research reflects the empirical reality of a non linear dynamics inherent in migratory movements Historically the notion that people move and settle in a sequential and traceable manner has been rightly disputed and the circular nature of migratory movements has come to the fore Even though the issues that are raised in the majority of the chapters are concerned with adaptation and change in new environments these are always linked or referenced to a transnational frame South Asian Migrations in Global History Neilesh Bose, 2020-12-10 This collection explores how South Asian migrations in modern history have shaped key aspects of globalization since the 1830s Including original research from colonial India Fiji Mexico South Africa North America and the Middle East the essays explore indentured labour and its legacies law as a site of regulation and historical biography Including recent scholarship on the legacy of issues such as consent sovereignty and skilled unskilled labour distinctions from the history of indentured labour migrations this volume brings together a range of historical changes that can only be understood by studying South Asian migrants within a globalized world system Centering south Asian migrations as a site of analysis in global history the contributors offer a lens into the ongoing regulation of labourers after the abolition of slavery that intersect with histories in the Global North and Global South The use of historical biography showcases experiences from below and showcases a world history outside empire and nation Contributions to Indian Sociology , 2003
