Ulysses Dubliners A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Exiles Chamber Music There was no hope for him this time it was the third stroke Night after night I had passed the house it was vacation time and studied the lighted square of window and night after night I had found it lighted in the same way faintly and evenly If he was dead I thought I would see the reflection of candles on the darkened blind for I knew that two candles must be set at the head of a corpse He had often said to me I am not long for this world and I had thought his words idle Now I knew they were true Every night as I gazed up at the window I said softly to myself the word paralysis It had always sounded strangely in my ears like the word gnomon in the Euclid and the word simony in the Catechism But now it sounded to me like the name of some maleficent and sinful being It filled me with fear and yet I longed to be nearer to it and to look upon its deadly work

James Joyce's Manuscripts and Letters at the University of Buffalo Peter Spielberg, James Joyce, State University of New York at Buffalo. University Libraries, Lockwood Memorial Library, 1962-01-01. The approximately 20,000 pages of Joyce manuscripts and letters in the Lockwood Memorial Library of the University of Buffalo, here catalogued by Dr. Spielberg, offer scholars and critics much unpublished and unsifted material for the explication and examination of Joyce's individual works, as well as the raw material necessary for a detailed exploration of James Joyce's creative process. The scope of the Buffalo Joyce Collection is vast, spanning the full range of Joyce's writing career from 1900 to 1940, from his Epiphanies to possible revisions for Finnegans Wake. Dr. Spielberg's work in compiling the present catalogue of Joyce's own writings and letters in the collection now provides for Joyceans a guide to what up until now has been mainly uncharted territory. The manuscripts, workbooks, notebooks, sketches, schemas, notes, early and late drafts, fair copies, typescripts, galley and page proofs, errata, translations, and letters have been divided into ten major categories: Epiphanies, A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, Exiles, Verses, Ulysses, Finnegans Wake, Criticism, Notebooks, Miscellaneous Manuscripts and Letters from Joyce. Each item has been described and identified following a uniform format for the pertaining facts: title, collation, pagination, contents, other markings, dating, publication, and notes. In his introduction to the catalogue, the author describes the Buffalo Joyce Collection itself, giving the history of its growth, its extent, and holdings. In discussing the manuscripts, he calls particular attention to the Finnegans Wake Workbooks MSS VI A, B, C, and D, which he comments are probably the strangest manuscripts in existence, even for so strange a book as Finnegans Wake. The apparent disorder and lack of organization of these workbooks is a false impression. Where the reader of the workbooks stumbles and bombinates through what seems to be utter blackness, Joyce danced and skipped with ease. What to us seems chaos was neatness and method to Joyce. It is Dr. Spielberg's hope that the manuscripts he has catalogued will, when examined in detail, offer a key to the better understanding of the hides and hints and misses in prints in the writings of the most controversial figure of twentieth-century literature.
