The Woman Who Lost Her Soul and Other Stories Jovita González Mireles, 2000-01-01 The writer Jovita González was a long member and ultimately served as president of Texas Folklore Society which strive to preserve the oral traditions and customs of her native state. Many of the folklore based stories in this volume were published by González in periodicals such as Southwest Review from the 1920s through the 1940s but have been gathered here for the first time. Sergio Reyna has brought together more than thirty narratives by González and arranged them into Animal Tales such as The Mescal Drinking Horse, Tales of Humans, The Bullet Swallower, Tales of Popular Customs, Shelling Corn by Moonlight, Religious Tales, The Guadalupe Vine, Tales of Mexican Ancestors, Ambrosio the Indian, and Tales of Ghosts, Demons, and Buried Treasure. The Woman Who Lost Her Soul. Reyna also provides a helpful introduction that succinctly surveys the author's life and work, analyzing her writings within their historical and cultural contexts.

"The White Horse" and Other Stories Emilia Bazan, 1993 This is a collection of stories by Emilia Pardo Bazan, 1851-1921, a Spanish author who often found the subject matter of her stories in the mysteries and vicissitudes of life. Some of her tales are fictional accounts of actual occurrences or people: The Pardon, A Galician Mother, and The Lady Bandit; others are a defense of women subjugated by a double standard: The Guilty Woman and The Faithful Fiancee; a number focus on the figure of the rural priest: A Descendant of the Cid and Don Carmelo's Salvation, for example. One highly symbolic story, The White Horse, qualifies Pardo Bazan as the godmother of the Generation of '98, the group of writers who exhorted Spain to begin anew, ridding itself of inertia, apathy, and fixation on past glories. Several of the collected tales are like contemporary suspense thrillers such as The Cuff Link and The White Hair, while many others reveal a keen psychological insight: The Torn Lace, The Substitute Scissors, The Nurse, and Rescue. Pardo Bazan's themes are fear, love, hatred, forgiveness, cruelty, poverty, necrophilia, repentance, homesickness, and madness, that is, naked reality, bitter reality, and often an ugly, vicious reality. One of the indisputable giants of the nineteenth-century short story is Guy de Maupassant. Pardo Bazan met him along with Daudet and Zola in France and considered him the master of short-story writers. However, although Maupassant influenced her most notably in psychological inquiry and careful attention to realistic detail, Pardo Bazan put her own stamp on her stories and developed a style sui generis, the most striking feature of which is brevity. The essence of Pardo Bazan's approach is to engage the reader as quickly as possible, certainly in the first paragraph, frequently in the first few sentences. Some aspect of a character or an episode is brought to light, and the story unfolds rapidly. There are third-person narratives in which the author occasionally injects herself or her point of view. Other narratives are presented wholly in the first person, some by an omniscient narrator, some by the players, and from time to time

Pardo Bazan has someone else tell the story to her and then as narrator she becomes the audience It is entirely plausible that some of her graphic descriptions were intended to blunt accusations of softness i e femininity that in her era would foolishly but automatically have been associated with a woman writer Still when the time came to represent the plight of women in terms of natural understandable sexual needs and intellectual acceptance Pardo Bazan captured the anguish and inferior status of her Spanish sisters
