

Read the story and answer the questions.

Stan and Daniel were the fastest bike riders in the whole school. They decided to have a big race on Saturday. Daniel put air in his tires. He oiled the chain. He checked the frame of his bike to make sure everything was just right. Stan did not do anything to his bike. His bike had cost three times as much as Daniel's bike. Stan thought that nothing could possibly go wrong. He laughed about all the work Daniel was doing while he watched a movie.

Stan and Daniel arrived at the race the next day. Bob shouted, "Go!" The boys began to pedal. Suddenly, Stan heard a noise. The chain had fallen off of his bike. Daniel kept on pedaling and won the race.

1. What would be a good title for this story?

Stan and Dan Race

2. Should Stan have checked his bike like Daniel did? Why or why not?

yes. Because it would have helped him.

3. Why do you think Stan thought that a more expensive bike would not have any problems? He thought his bike was better just because it cost more.

4. Who do you think should have won the race? Why?

Daniel, because he prepared for the race.

5. What should Stan do next time?

He should take care of his bike.

Common Ground Florencia G. Henshaw, Maris D. Hawkins, 2022-02-01 Common Ground is accessible to teachers at all levels yet firmly rooted in current questions of second language acquisition SLA One of its primary strengths is the authors themselves both of whom are accomplished language teachers who understand the challenges and opportunities in communication focused language teaching Their experience expertise insight and enthusiasm for language teaching translate into a book that is refreshingly practical for teachers especially teachers who are striving to break from traditional drills commonly presented in textbooks I hope this book finds its way into the hands of every language teacher who is looking for concrete examples of how SLA principles meet the realities of the classroom Stacey Margarita Johnson Vanderbilt University English Teachers' Journal (Israel) ,1973

Reading Comprehension for Girls Julie Harper, 2014-10-04 Reading Comprehension for Girls includes 48 fun short stories designed for girls to read Each story is followed by four multiple choice questions that girls should be able to answer if they have already read and understood the story Answers can be found at the back of the book This book is divided into three parts Part 1 has 16 stories with 1 page approx 200 to 300 words Part 2 has 16 stories with 1 2 pages approx 300 to 400 words Part 3 has 16 stories with 2 3 pages approx 500 to 800 words Each story features a topic likely to inspire girls interest in the story Topics include princesses mermaids fairies slumber parties birthday parties magical items field trips and much more Most of the multiple choice questions have three answers to choose from in the beginning of the book and this grows to five answers to choose from toward the end of the book The answer key allows parents and teachers to quickly check student work or aids as a self check for students who are working independently Students are encouraged to summarize each story in addition to answering the four multiple choice questions Writing a summary forces the student to read the story and not just search for the answers to the questions The print edition of this workbook includes blank lines on which to briefly summarize each story from Parts 1 2

For the e book edition a basic blank composition notebook or journal could be used for summarizing each story The mermaid theme on the cover and interior design along with the topics and characters of the stories were chosen specifically to help interest girls Of course boys could read and enjoy this book too although some boys may not appreciate that it says for Girls on the title Sorry boys There may be a similar book for boys coming in the future

Situating Moral and Cultural Values in ELT Materials Handoyo Puji Widodo, Marianne Rachel Perfecto, Le Van Canh, Adcharawan Buripakdi, 2017-09-27 This volume accentuates how ELT materials can be a mediation of capitalizing on moral and cultural values which are more locally grounded in respective Southeast Asia SEA countries It features critical studies on locally produced ELT materials textbooks situated in the following SEA countries Timor Leste The Philippines Singapore Malaysia Cambodia Vietnam Indonesia and Thailand The chapters written by experts who know the ELT context of their respective SEA country critically examine the design and use of ELT materials widely used in local and national contexts Thus the volume provides fresh insight into how values are uniquely manifested in language classroom materials The present text also brings together empirical conceptual and practical grounds for incorporating moral and cultural values into ELT materials development in such a way that it views morality and culture as a mutually complementing entity This much needed volume will be a valuable resource for those interested in the design and use of language materials in culturally and linguistically diverse contexts such as in the Asia Pacific America Africa and Europe
