

Causes and Prevention Programs of Teen Suicide

In the United States, we are known to be the land of the free, the world's strongest country that is known to make many dreams come true. We have a great sense of education and how it should be used in our daily lives. Even if we are known to be such a great country, the country itself still has issues that end up giving a negative effect to those that live in this economy, especially towards future generations that come to grow and learn more about this world. They have to face these hard challenges that the world has provided for these people, and because they have to face these challenges, they have to fight a great battle to succeed.

Yet to those who fail, they begin to lose hope, they try to seek help, and they feel left alone. Some schools have generally understood this as a problem, which is why they have opened up programs, but it seems as though not all schools see the importance of this. Though not all programs may be able to help, there are effective teen suicide programs that teens need to help with issues such as bullying, home abuse, and academic pressure. Schools should provide these programs because it will reduce the amount of suicide among teenagers and it will give encouragement to teenagers to pursue their lives.

Teen suicide is a common issue among teenagers they think by committing suicide it will help them to feel relieved of their depression. Most teenagers like to be lonely, which will increase their depression to a higher level. People need to be careful when they talk to them or how they treat them. When it becomes a problem, people need to take it carefully otherwise teenagers might hurt themselves.

When it comes to teenagers, they think that they can solve their problems when they will commit suicide, teenagers never think that they will hurt other people as well, by committing a suicide they always like to take the easy way because of their depression. According to Kathryn Murphy, "Depression can so distort a teen's view of life that he concentrates only on his failures and disappointments(2005) " (4). Teenagers have a different thinking than adults while they are teenagers. They think that everyone is against them, and they do not know if they are doing the right thing or the wrong thing. They just want to prove that they are always right.

Unfortunately, teens are always under pressure to succeed academically, and they are facing bullying and home abuse. That always affects teenagers minds with hate and causes problems to others. To solve this problem they have to talk to someone they trust with their secrets and do not rush to the solution of suiciding. Life can get rough sometimes and teenagers will think that everyone is against them, but is not the end of the world; they can solve their problems really easily.

Being a teenager is hard. Having all the pressure throughout the years thinking that they will never have a normal life, according to Mary Jane Anderson "Fee
