Other Stories Alexei Remizov, 2021-04-13 In a dilapidated and isolated old house something peculiar seems to happen whenever the town's bestial exterminator visits. On a seemingly bucolic country estate the head of the household is a living corpse obsessed with other corpses. An adolescent boy who passes his days in private dream worlds experiences a sexual awakening spurred by his family's scandalous tenant. In these and other stories the modernist writer Alexei Remizov offers a panorama of Russian mythology, the supernatural, rural grotesques, and profound religious faith in fiery revolutionary settings. Alexei Remizov was one of the greatest writers of the Russian symbolist movement of the early twentieth century. In the thirteen stories collected in this volume his exceptional stylistic achievements are on full display. Equally drawing on rural colloquial speech, the language of Russian fairy tales, and the customs of the Old Believers and Russian Orthodoxy, they transport the reader into a mysterious world in between uncanny folktales and encroaching modernity. The Little Devil and Other Stories includes works from across Remizov's career encompassing his thematic preoccupations and stylistic experimentation. Antonina W. Bouis's translation captures Remizov's many registers to offer English language readers a sampling of a remarkable Russian writer.

Dust and Other Stories Taejun Yi, 2018-04-24 Yi Taejun was one of twentieth century Korea's true masters of the short story and a man who in 1946 stunned his contemporaries by moving to the Soviet-occupied northern zone of his country. In South Korea, where he is known today as one who went north, Yi's work was banned until 1988. His momentous decision did not lead him to a safe haven; however, though initially welcomed into the literary establishment, North Korea sent him into internal exile in the 1950s, and little is known of his fate. Dust and Other Stories offers a selection of Yi's stories across time and place, showcasing a superb stylist caught up in the midst of his era's most urgent ideological and aesthetic divides. This collection unites his earlier modernist masterpieces from the colonial era with his little-known work penned during North Korea's founding years, offering a rare glimpse into the making and crossing of the border between south and north. During the turbulent final years of Japanese rule, Yi's elegant yet subdued stories championed both his native tongue and the belief in the capacity of art. In the heavily politicized environment of the North, his later works maintain a faith in the art of storytelling and a concern for the disappearance of customs in the throes of modernization. Throughout both eras, Yi focused on ordinary people: old men struggling to understand a changing world, lovers meeting up among ancient ruins, a lively widow targeted by a literacy campaign, a bourgeois couple trying to sustain themselves during the war by breeding rabbits, and more. Magnificently translated by Janet Poole, Yi's work bears witness to global turmoil with a melancholic sense of enduring beauty.

The White Ojibway Medicine Man and Other Stories Joseph Weinstein MD, 2009-09-28 Set against the breathtaking backdrop of the remote Red Lake area in northwestern Ontario, The White Ojibway Medicine Man and Other Stories is an intriguing collection of short stories based on the trials and trepidations of a young doctor treating the Ojibway from 1955 to 1963. Louisa May Alcott's Fairy Tales and Fantasy Stories Louisa May Alcott,1992 While these stories can make no claim to being great art they are an important segment of Alcott's canon They demonstrate that while she was exploring new territory with some of her work she was also working within the existing tradition of the didactic fairy tale

Slow Boat to China and Other Stories Kim Chew Ng,2016-03-01 Dream and Swine and Aurora Deep in the Rubber Forest Fish Bones Allah's Will Monkey Butts Fire and Dangerous Things Ng Kim Chew's stories are raw rural and rich with the traditions of his native Malaysia They are also full of humor and spirit demonstrating a deep appreciation for human ingenuity in the face of poverty oppression and exile Ng creatively captures the riot of cultures that roughly coexist on the Malay Peninsula and its surrounding archipelago Their interplay is heightened by the encroaching forces of globalization which bring new opportunities for cultural experimentation but also an added dimension of alienation In prose that is intimate and atmospheric these sensitively crafted resonant stories depict the struggles of individuals torn between their ancestral and adoptive homes communities pressured by violence and minority Malaysian Chinese in dynamic tension with the Islamic Malay majority Told through relatable characters Ng's tales show why he has become a leading Malaysian writer of Chinese fiction representing in mood voice and rhythm the dislocation of a people and a country in transition
