Extrait I returned from the City about three o clock on that May afternoon pretty well disgusted with life I had been three months in the Old Country and was fed up with it If anyone had told me a year ago that I would have been feeling like that I should have laughed at him but there was the fact The weather made me liverish the talk of the ordinary Englishman made me sick I couldn t get enough exercise and the amusements of London seemed as flat as sodawater that has been standing in the sun Richard Hannay I kept telling myself you have got into the wrong ditch my friend and you had better climb out It made me bite my lips to think of the plans I had been building up those last years in Bulawayo I had got my pile not one of the big ones but good enough for me and I had figured out all kinds of ways of enjoying myself My father had brought me out from Scotland at the age of six and I had never been home since so England was a sort of Arabian Nights to me and I counted on stopping there for the rest of my days
