underdog Why is that We begin life tiny and helpless at the mercy of those who are bigger and more powerful than us parents and guardians who tell us what to eat what to wear how to behave even when to sleep and wake up From childhood into adulthood we re told what to do by those who wield more power our parents teachers bosses government So naturally we have a predisposition to resent the overdogs and root for the little guy But this tendency which international political consultant and human rights activist Michael Prell calls underdogma can be very dangerous both to America and to the world at large In Underdogma Prell who has worked world leaders including Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu the Australian and Canadian prime ministers and the Dalai Lama explores our love hate relationship with power within our culture and our politics Underdogma explains seeming mysteries such as why Almost half of Americans blamed President Bush for the attacks of 9 11 even while the American media described the architect of these attacks as thoughtful about his cause and craft and folksy Gays and lesbians protest those who protect gay rights America Israel while championing those who outlaw and execute homosexuals Palestine Environmentalists focus their rage on America even though China is the largest emitter of greenhouse gases The United Nations elevates countries such as Sudan to full membership on the UN s Commission on Human Rights even as the ethnic cleansing of Darfur proceeds Tracing the evolution of this belief system through human history ancient Greece to Marxism to the dawn of political correctness Prell shows what continuing with this collective mindset means for our future While America and its president increasingly exalt the meek and apologize for their power America s competitors and enemies are moving in a different direction China is projected to overtake the U S economically by 2027 and is ready to move into the position of hegemon and radical Islamists are looking to extend their global territory taking any sign of weakness as a chance to attack America must return to its founding spirit and underdogma must stop now our nation depends on it
