handwriting or other surviving evidence permits On this basis the texts earlier presented in The Letters of Herman Melville 1960 edited by Merrell R Davis and William H Gilman have been revised with differences in almost every letter in spelling and punctuation and some forty five differences in wording Fifty two newly discovered letters by Melville more than half of which are first published here are added to those printed in the 1960 edition This text of Correspondence is an Approved Text of the Committee on Scholarly Editions Modern Language Association of America BOOK JACKET An Earthy Entanglement with Spirituality Elizabeth Moore Willingham,2024-07-15 An Earthy Entanglement with Spirituality offers compelling perspectives on the human spirit as represented in literature and art Authors approach the inquiry using distinct critical approaches to varied primary sources poetry of various genres and periods Shakespearean drama contemporary theater Renaissance sculpture and the novel short story sketch and dialogue The Founder of Cairo Shainool Jiwa,2013-05-30 The reign of the founder of Cairo the fourth Fatimid Imam caliph al Mu izz li Din Allah 341 365 953 975 marks a watershed in the transformation of the Fatimid state from a regional North African dynasty to an expansive Mediterranean empire It was also under al Mu izz that articulations of the supreme authority of the Fatimid Ismaili imamate were written and disseminated across various regions of Fatimid influence The writings of Idris Imad al Din d 872 1468 provide a distinctive presentation of the Fatimid imamate from the perspective of the Ismaili da wa itself as the chief d ai of the Yemeni Tayyib Ismailis Idris composed his monumental Uyun al akhbar wa funun al athar as a record of the Ismaili imamate from its inception to his own time in doing so Idris drew upon the rich repertoire of Ismaili and non Ismaili sources that had been part of the corpus of the Fatimid literary tradition many of which have subsequently been lost due to the vagaries of time and circumstance As the only surviving medieval Ismaili work documenting the history of the Fatimid dynasty the Uy un al akhbar is among its principal primary sources This book provides the first annotated English translation of the extensive chapter on al Mu izz in the Uy un which remains a vital yet relatively unknown Ismaili source The introduction to this work not only outlines the salient features of al Mu izz s reign but also examines Idris purpose and approach to historical writing In providing an insider s account of the reign of one of the most influential rulers of the medieval Muslim world this work will be of particular interest to students of Ismaili history and thought medieval Mediterranean history and Muslim historiography Master of the Age Paul E. Walker,2007-10-24 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Few doctrines in Islam have engendered as much contention and disagreement as those surrounding the imamate the office of supreme leader of the Muslim community after the death of the Prophet In the medieval period while the caliphate still existed rivalry among the claimants to that most lofty position was particularly intense The early 5th 11th century Ismaili da i Hamid al Din al Kirmani worked for most of his life in the eastern lands of the Islamic world principally within the hostile domain of the Abbasid caliphs and the Buyid amirs At a critical point he was summoned by the da wa to Egypt where he taught and wrote for several years before returning once again to Iran and Iraq

About 405 1015 just prior to his move from Iraq to Cairo he composed a treatise he called Lights to Illuminate the Proof of the Imamate al Masabih fi ithbat al imama in the bold hope of convincing Fakhr al Mulk the Shi i wazir of the Buyids in Baghdad to abandon the Abbasids and support the Fatimid caliph al Hakim For that purpose he produced a long interconnected series of philosophically sophisticated proofs all leading logically to the absolute necessity of the imamate This work is thus unique both in the precision of its doctrine and in the historical circumstance surrounding its composition The text appears here in a modern critical edition of the Arabic original with a complete translation introduction and notes

Biographia Britannica ,1763 Feminine Engendered Faith M. Sabine,2015-12-23 This book proposes the poetic link between Donne and Crashaw during the English Reformation In the first half of this work Donne s Songs and Sonets Verse Letters religious works and Anniversaries are discussed as they reflect increasingly covert reverence for a holy mother figure In the second half Crashaw s juvenile poems and epigrams verse in honour of the Virgin and Child and mature contemplative verse are seen to express mystical homage to Mary and growing admiration for feminine powers of faith Degrees of Excellence Arzina R. Lalani,2009-11-30 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies One of the most distinguished scholars of his time Ahmad b Ibrahim al Naysaburi lived during the height of Fatimid rule in Egypt He came from Nishapur the centre of the Ismaili da wa in Khurasan a thriving centre of learning particularly noted for its use of rationalistic philosophy Several important works are accredited to him but it is the Kitab ithbat al imama which is of particular significance for the development of philosophy in medieval Islamic thought In this work presented here in a new edition and translation al Naysaburi allows us to understand not only the significance of his own thought but also the beliefs of his age Rather than basing his assertions exclusively on the authority of the Qur an and hadith he applies rational tools to explain his theology providing a philosophical affirmation of the imamate by presenting a range of arguments foremost amongst which is the theory of the degrees of excellence Degrees of Excellence offers the first book length study of this hitherto unknown scholar of the early 5th 11th century This invaluable source of Fatimid historiography will prove essential reading for students of Islamic history philosophy and theology It will also serve as a useful reference for modern Shi i communities of all persuasions From the Greeks to the Arabs and Beyond Hans Daiber,2021-07-05 From the Greeks to the Arabs and Beyond written by Hans Daiber is a six volume collection of Daiber s scattered writings journal articles essays and encyclopaedia entries on Greek Syriac Arabic translations Islamic theology and Sufism the history of science Islam in Europe manuscripts and the history of oriental studies The collection contains published since 1967 and unpublished works in English German Arabic Persian and Turkish including editions of Arabic and Syriac texts The publication mirrors the intercultural character of Islamic thought and sheds new light on many aspects ranging from the Greek pre Socratics to the Malaysian philosopher Naquib al Attas A main concern is the interpretation of texts in print or in manuscripts culminating in two catalogues Vol V and VI which contain descriptions of newly discovered mainly Arabic manuscripts in all fields Vol I significant commentary on the Qasida was written by Ali b Muhammad b al Walid d 1215 CE a major early representative of the Tayyibi Ismaili tradition which emerged and flourished in medieval Yemen In his view the poem encapsulated Tayyibi beliefs whose doctrines bear striking parallels with late antique Gnosticism Avicenna s Allegory on the Soul presents the first edition of the Arabic text of Ibn al Walid s commentary The Useful Epistle al Risala al mufida alongside an English translation and extended introduction It offers invaluable insight into the intricacies of Muslim thought and a deeper understanding of Avicenna s substantial intellectual legacy

Orations of the Fatimid Caliphs Paul E. Walker, 2009-02-28 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies The Fatimid empire was a highly sophisticated and cosmopolitan regime that flourished from the beginning of the 10th to the end of the 12th century Under the enlightened rule of the Fatimid Caliphs Cairo was founded as the nucleus of an imperium that extended from Arabia in the east to present day Morocco in the west Dynamic rulers like the the fourth caliph al Mu izz who conquered Egypt and founded his new capital there were remarkable not only for their extensive conquests but also for combining secular with religious legitimacy As living imams of the Ismaili branch of Shi ism they exercised authority over both spiritual and secular domains The sacred dimension of their mandate was manifested most powerfully twice a year when the imam Caliphs personally delivered sermons or khutbas to their subjects to coincide with the great feasts and festivals of fast breaking and sacrifice While few of these sermons have survived those that have endured vividly evoke both of the atmosphere of the occasion and the words uttered on it Paul E Walker here provides unique access to these orations by presenting the Arabic original and a complete English translation of all the khutbas now extant He also offers a history of the festival sermons and explores their key themes and rhetorical strategies

Affirming the Imamate: Early Fatimid Teachings in the Islamic West Wilferd Madelung, Paul E. Walker, 2021-02-25 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies The two sermons edited and translated here for the first time are primary material from the years before the establishment of the Fatimid caliphate in 297 909 The authors have been identified as Abu Abd Allah al Shi i and Abu l Abbas Muhammad two brothers who were central to the success of the Ismaili da wa in North Africa Da wa a term used to describe how Muslims teach others about the beliefs and practices of their Islamic faith therefore provide a unique view of the nature and development of Islam throughout history In this case the primary texts shed light on the development of Islam among the Berbers of the Maghreb The first text by Abu Abd Allah al Shi i shows how the arguments for belief in the imamate of the family of the Prophet that is the Shi a belief that all imams should be spiritual descendants of the Prophet Muhammad and his household were developed and presented to bring new adherents to the cause The Book of the Keys to Grace by his elder brother Abu l Abbas too concerns not only the centrality of the imam in the faith but also sheds light on the hierarchy of the da wa in this early period and its organisational sophistication Both texts also reveal the contemporary theology propagated by the Ismaili da wa including for instance the powerful analogy of Moses Aaron and Muhammad Ali the awareness of a variety of religious traditions and the use of detailed

Qur'anic quotations and a wide range of hadith. As such they constitute primary source material of interest not only for Ismaili history but for this early period of Islam in general. Typee Herman Melville, 1968 Describes the adventures of a sailor who jumps ship at a south sea island inhabited by cannibals a voyage around Polynesia and a quest for an elusive beauty among the islands of a tropical archipelago. The Early History of Ismaili Jurisprudence Agostino Cilardo, 2012-03-12 Researchers have shed light on the literary production of the Ismailis since the early 1930s. The cataloguing of these works has been carried out by Ivanow, Fyzee, Goriawala, Poonawala, Gacek, Cortese and de Bloise. Many works attributable to Ismaili scholars however are still unavailable either because they remain hidden in private collections or because they have not survived. Ismaili law in particular is still a largely unexplored field of study. Al-Qadi Abu Hanifa al-Nu'man is generally considered the founder and greatest exponent of Ismaili jurisprudence. Many of his works have been lost and information on some others is scattered yet other works remain in manuscript form and only a few have been published. The present book is a critical edition and translation of al-Nu'man's Minhaj al-faraid based on its three known copies. It deals with the law of inheritance, one of the most complex in Islamic law. In comparing the Minhaj with two published works, the Da'im al-Islam and Kitab al-iqtisar as well as a manuscript Mukhtasar al-athar of al-Nu'man, a significant doctrinal evolution clearly emerges reflecting his early Maliki training and then his work under four Fatimid imams. Ismaili law is also compared with the doctrines of the Imami school as well as the legal system of the four Sunni schools. This book thus allows us to determine the time of the composition of the Minhaj al-faraid, the development and the originality of Ismaili jurisprudence and its relation to other schools of law. Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Salam Rassi, 2022-02-01 Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World. Abd sh of Nisibis and the Apologetic Tradition is the first monograph length study and intellectual biography of Abd sh of Nisibis, d. 1318, bishop and polymath of the Church of the East. Focusing on his works of apologetic theology, it examines the intellectual strategies he employs to justify Christianity against Muslim and to a lesser extent Jewish criticisms. Better known to scholars of Syriac literature as a poet, jurist and cataloguer, Abd sh wrote a considerable number of works in the Arabic language, many of which have only recently come to light. He flourished at a time when Syriac Christian writers were becoming increasingly indebted to Islamic models of intellectual production. Yet many of his writings were composed during mounting religious tensions following the official conversion of the Ilkhanate to Islam in 1295. In the midst of these challenges, Abd sh negotiates a centuries-long tradition of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to remind his readers of the verity of the Christian faith. His engagement with this tradition reveals how anti-Muslim apologetics had long shaped the articulation of Christian identity in the Middle East since the emergence of Islam. Through a selective process of encyclopaedism and systematisation, Abd sh navigates a vast corpus of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to create a synthesis and theological canon that remains authoritative to this day. International Poetry of the First World War Constance M. Ruzich, 2020-10-15 Ranging far beyond the traditional canon, this ground-breaking anthology casts a vivid
