

Minority Voices and Critics During the Great Depression

The New Deal was FDR's plan to get the US out of the Great Depression and prevent it from happening again. FDR served from 1932-1945, far longer than any other president. While the programs of the New Deal helped, it was World War II and the US war machine that finally pushed the US out of the depression.

Using your book, answer the following questions to the best of your ability and then turn in to D2L.

1. How did New Deal benefits apply to women and minorities? The New Deal allowed for women in the government. It did more than anything else in history. Black women also got the right to vote in the North and West.
2. How did the entrenched power of southern white conservatives limit African Americans' ability to enjoy the full benefits of the New Deal and eliminate racial violence and discrimination? Southern white conservatives would refuse to hire black people within the construction projects from the South. This led to white people getting the jobs more than they did. FDR also did not support the anti-lynching cause, which led people to continue their acts of violence.
3. How did FDR communicate with the American people? Why did he do this? FDR would often use his radio addresses known as "fireside chats". This allowed him to spread his messages to people in homes as well.
4. What was Huey Long's program to challenge FDR's New Deal? Huey Long proposed the "Share Our Wealth" movement, where
