

3. Identify a range of places where a person can find information on employment rights and responsibilities. You should identify at least two internal and two external sources of information. [1.3]

Internal Sources:

- Staff Handbook: A booklet made by most organisations which provides information about rights and responsibilities of the staff, like time keeping, do's and don'ts, information about staff in various departments etc.
- Personnel Department: They are the people who can provide the best and accurate information about most queries made by the staff.

External Sources:

- ACAS: An organisation which is like an epicentre of information regarding any issues occurring within the organisation and how to resolve it remaining within the rules and regulations of a company.
- Citizens Advice Bureau: A network of 316 charities that give free confidential information and advice to assist people with their legal, financial, consumer and other problems.

4. Describe how representative bodies can support employees. [1.4]

Representative bodies or trade unions are associations of workers who act as a legal representative or bargaining agents for employees in a matter or by law. They are like a support entity for an employee who are there to help and provide telephonic or in person advice in situations like discrimination, racism, disciplinary and grievances etc.

The main common purpose of these associations is to improve the conditions of employment as they work on a constitution which details the governance of their bargaining unit depending on the industry that binds them legally to their negotiations and functioning.

The purpose of their formation is helping to make improvements in pay, benefits, working conditions or social and political status. When required, they would help to negotiate wages, work rules, occupational health and safety standards and any other problem an employee would face during the course of their employment.

5. Identify employer and employee responsibilities for equality and diversity in a business environment. You should give at least two employer responsibilities and two employee responsibilities. [1.5]

If possible, provide relevant equality and diversity procedures from your workplace (or place of study) to support your answer. These documents should be annotated to highlight the relevant sections.

Equality and diversity play an important role in an organisation.

As an employer, it is mandatory to provide an employee, with a safe working environment which is free of discrimination, harassment and intimidation. Every employer should provide equal opportunity to an employee and they should not be treated differently because of their gender, age, cast, colour or race.
