I wake to the sound of one hand clapping. It is my mother banging on the cellar door above me. The air was filled with the scent of lavender just before the air was filled with the soft, heady scent of lavender. I was lying in a field of lilac purple flowers swaying gently above me. I was safe. I was happy. 2. I spend my days in my world of make-believe: the Lavender Fields and the Loneliness Birds. I find my escape from the darkness there. I am not affected by the English ways like a lot of young girls. I could mention. 3. I had a street in England named after me. It was a typical Asian street in the early 1980s, a close-knit community where everyone knew each other. I was offered drinks and food whenever I went to my friends' houses. 4. My family lived near a few Armenians and a single white lady. The rest of our street's residents were Pakistani Muslims. A Study
