

Graduation Speech

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

First and foremost, I want to express my deep gratitude to all of you who have supported me on this journey. To my parents, who have always believed in me and encouraged me to pursue my dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To my teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon me, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to my friends, who have stood by me through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

As we stand here today, on the threshold of a new chapter in our lives, it's natural to feel a mix of emotions. We're excited about the opportunities and possibilities that lie ahead, but we're also a little nervous about what the future holds.

But as we look back on the past four years, or however long it took us to get here, we can't help but feel a sense of pride and accomplishment. We've worked hard to get to this point, and we should be proud of everything we've achieved.

We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

So, as we embark on this new journey, let's remember to keep an open mind, embrace new experiences, and stay true to ourselves. Let's not be afraid to take risks and try new things, because it's through taking chances that we truly grow and learn.

And most importantly, let's remember to be kind to ourselves and to others. The world can be a tough place at times, and we all need a little bit of kindness and compassion to get through it.

So, to all of my fellow graduates, I congratulate you on this amazing accomplishment. You deserve to celebrate and be proud of all that you've achieved.

But let's not forget that this is just the beginning. There are many more adventures and challenges ahead, and I can't wait to see what the future holds for each and every one of us.

Graduation Address Wilfred J. McNeil, 1964 Ask the Grey Sisters Elizabeth Iles, 1998-06 Ask the Grey Sisters Sault Ste Marie and the General Hospital 1898 1998 tells the story of the creation and one hundred year history of the Sault Ste Marie General Hospital At a time when Canada's healthcare system is at a crossroads and we are asked to make crucial decisions for its future it is intriguing and enlightening to look at the colourful past of a typical community hospital Throughout the 1890s Sault Ste Marie was a town in search of a hospital Its glory days at the centre of the fur trade route were long gone and the Sault was in the process of becoming a modern industrial community Such a community needed a hospital as a centrepiece to attract investors and as a necessary social institution to care for the hundreds of workers who were flocking to town without family support The General Hospital was established in 1898 after the town committee charged with developing a hospital had been refused funding by both the federal and provincial governments In desperation the committee met with the provincial Inspector of Asylums and Prisons the only provincial official with hospitals in his mandate If you wish a hospital of which the work is serious and lasting he is reported to have advised them ask the Grey Sisters And so began a fruitful association between the community of Sault Ste Marie and two orders of Grey Sisters who have operated the hospital through its one hundred year history Based in part on the extensive archival collections of both orders of nuns this history includes material from the sisters Chronicles and their personal reminiscences The result is an intimate and detailed portrait of a community hospital placed in the context of an emerging provincial system of health care
