Unisa Study Guide Indigenous Law Study Guide:

African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali, Edward Shizha, 2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context Human Rights from a Comparative and International Law Perspective Joan Church, Christian Schulze, Hennie Strydom, 2007 In terms of the South African Constitution of 1996 there is a general need for an introduction to comparative law and one that covers what is technically known as applied comparative law more particularly applied comparative law that involves a study of the bills of rights in other countries Customary Law in a Changing Society Digby Sghelo Koyana, 1980 Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century Policing for a New South Africa Mike Brogden, Clifford D. Shearing, 2005-08-04 The state police force of South Africa has acquired massive notoriety since its formation Its officers have developed a reputation for routinely provoking violence and torturing suspects As the key bastion of apartheid it is in urgent need of change In Policing for a New South Africa Mike Brogden and Clifford Shearing evaluate the options for change They critically analyse orthodox policing ideas imported from the West and contrast them with the indigenous model of independent policing from the townships of South Africa itself Together they offer significant possibilities for the future Importantly they suggest that rather than South Africans import ideas wholesale from the West the latter countries in the light of the failures of their own police systems have much to learn from South Africa The Guide to Sentencing in South Africa S. S. Terblanche, 1999 Critical Racial and Decolonial Literacies Debbie Bargallie, Nilmini Fernando, 2024-08-22 This collection offers a unique exploration of critical racial literacy and anti racist praxis in Australia s educational landscape Combining critical race and Indigenous theories and perspectives contributors articulate a decolonial liberatory imperative for our times In an age when decolonization has become a buzzword the book demystifies critical anti racism praxis advocating for critical and multidisciplinary approaches Educators from a range of disciplines including Law Indigenous Studies Health Sociology Policy and the Arts collectively share compelling stories of educating on race racism and anti racism offering strategies that can be put into practice in classrooms activism and structural reforms African Law and Legal Theory Gordon R. Woodman, Akintunde Olusegun Obilade, 1995 The papers presented in this volume aim to contribute to the development of African legal theory Issues discussed include legal anthropology customary law in the state legal system legal concepts and procedural and substantive justice Comparative Contract Law Thomas Kadner Graziano, 2023-01-17 This significantly revised and expanded third edition of Comparative Contract Law brings together extracts from legislation and court practice in a way that enables students to experience comparative law in action

Navorsingsverslag, 1991 Law, Religion and the Environment in Africa M. Christian Green, Muhammed Haron, 2020-06-03 This volume explores themes of ecotheology ecofeminism environmental pollution and degradation climate change human and environmental rights sustainable development human animal relations through totem and taboo sacred sites and spaces and other environmental topics in ways that add immeasurably to the study of African environmentalisms and the interaction of law and religion In terms of religion the capability of humans not only to sin and destroy the earth but also to repair and redeem it is very much in evidence across Christianity Islam and Africa s many indigenous religious and cultural traditions In terms of law the need for effective policies and for states and governments to work with indigenous groups and communities towards environmental solutions is also apparent The Bantu Bibliography Jouni Maho, 2008

Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems Masenya, Tlou Maggie, 2023-08-03 Indigenous knowledge is regarded as undocumented cultural local traditional and community knowledge produced and owned by local people in their specific communities It is mainly preserved in the memories of elders and shared or passed on from generation to generation through oral communication traditional practices and demonstrations This irreplaceable resource may be lost forever as a direct result of the pressures of modernization colonization and globalization Concern over the loss of Indigenous knowledge has thus raised a need for the preservation and documentation of this knowledge in digital formats Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems determines how Indigenous knowledge can be documented and digitally preserved to benefit Indigenous knowledge owners and their communities and be accessible for future generations The book provides the best practices innovative strategies theoretical and conceptual frameworks and empirical research findings regarding the digital preservation and documentation of Indigenous knowledge systems worldwide Covering topics such as digital media platforms educational management and knowledge systems this premier reference source is a valuable and useful tool for students information professionals knowledge managers records managers Indigenous knowledge owners Indigenous community leaders librarians archivists computer scientists information technology specialists students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians Indigenous Language Media, Language Politics and Democracy in Africa Abiodun Salawu, Monica Chibita, 2016-02-02 This book deals with the often neglected link between indigenous languages media and democracy in Africa It recognizes that the media plays an amplifying role that is vital to modern day expression public participation and democracy but that without the agency to harness media potential many Africans will be excluded from public discourse Anthropology & Education Quarterly ,1995

Languages, Identities and Intercultural Communication in South Africa and Beyond Russell H Kaschula, 2021-08-23 African countries and South Africa in particular being multilingual and multicultural societies make for exciting sociolinguistic and applied language analysis in order to tease out the complex relationship between language and identity This book applies sociolinguistic theory as well as critical language awareness and translanguageing with its many facets to various communicative scenarios both on the continent and in South Africa in an accessible and practical way Africa lends itself to such sociolinguistic analysis concerning language identity and intercultural communication This book reflects consciously on the North South debate and the need for us to create our own ways of interpretation emanating from the South and speaking back to the North and on issues that pertain to the South including southern Africa Aspects such as language and power language planning policy and implementation culture prejudice social interaction translanguageing intercultural communication education gender and autoethnography are covered This is a valuable resource for students studying African sociolinguistics language and identity and applied language studies Anyone interested in the relationship between language and society on the African continent would also find the book easily accessible South African journal of ethnology ,1999 Innovation and Development of Agricultural Systems Phokele Maponya, Ndivhuho web apr 2 2013 this paper presents the modeling and simulation of digital reverse power relay on matlab simulink in this simulation the relay performance is tested on 11kv synchronous generator connected with 220kv through a step up transformer

is there a relay or and contactor blocks within matlab simulink - Feb 27 2022

web jun 27 2009 a built in block that models an electromagnetic relay is not available in simpowersystems 5 0 r2008b however there is a demo model under the Simscape 3 0 r2008b product that could be used as a reference model for building a relay

distance protection relay file exchange matlab central - May 01 2022

web jun 3 2022 the distance protection method is widely used for power system transmission line protection distance relays are one of the main protection devices in a transmission line distance protection relay approximates the impedance down the line to a fault using currents and voltage measurement units

implement protection relay with definite minimum time dmt trip - Aug 16 2023

web the protection relay block implements a protection relay for the hardware and the motor with definite minimum time dmt trip characteristics using the reference limit feedback and reset input signals in the event of a fault the block generates a latched fault signal that you can use to protect the hardware and the motor

power system relay protection simulation based on matlab - Jan 29 2022

web matlab based simulation technology can support the analysis and design of relay protection systems a simulation model is built for the study of power system relay protection as an example the power system fault simulation zero sequence current protection simulation and transformer differential protection simulation are

protection relay software models in interaction with power system - Jun 14 2023

web may 25 2012 protection relay software models in interaction with power system simulators abstract modelling and simulation software developed for analysing protective relaying applications and relay design concepts in power distribution is

design modeling and implementation of multi function protective relay - Feb 10 2023

web jun 17 2020 in this paper a digital multi function protective relay was designed and implemented on matlab simulink in this study we also explore some current techniques ranging from the use of digital logic algorithms to system protection applications
