Unisa Short Courses For 2015:

Footprints McLean Sibanda, 2021-09-06 Footprints is a captivating story about intellectual property IP. It speaks to its role in society, trade, industry and economy and expounds on the actual meaning of IP. The book lays a solid foundation for innovators, entrepreneurs, businesses and nations to realise their full potential through IP policy, legislation, use and practices. McLean Sibanda shares his personal story together with stories and testimonies of fellow travellers taking us through their journey into the field of IP. He meticulously recounts South Africa's path in transforming the management of IP emanating from publicly financed research and development, R & D development of critical human capital and other infrastructure to ensure effective IP commercialisation and technology transfer. Footprints is a timely masterpiece given IP issues in Africa's scramble for Covid-19 vaccines and implementation of the agreement establishing the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA). The book provides strategies of how African countries can use IP and innovation to develop industries to ensure health, security and trading of goods that can benefit from the AfCFTA. Narrated through a series of significant moments, Footprints demonstrates the importance of vision, solid foundation, collaboration, champions and intentional steps for economic transformation. With glimpses into how countries such as China and Korea used IP to develop their economies, this book makes a compelling case for embracing IP, increased R & D investment, relevant human capital and appropriate use of IP in the development of new products and services necessary for knowledge-based and industrialised economies. Footprints is a must-read for any academic, aspiring intellectual property scholar, policy maker, economist, development activist, entrepreneur, researcher, innovator, professional and technology transfer specialist. Intellectual property is everywhere around us and impacts our lives. For entrepreneurs and businesses alike, intellectual property is about value creation; it is the insurance you need for when you succeed. McLean Sibanda

The Use and Abuse of the Spirit in Pentecostalism Mookgo S. Kgatle, Allan H. Anderson, 2020-11-29. This book is a pneumatological reflection on the use and abuse of the Spirit in light of the abuse of religion within South African Pentecostalism. Both emerging and well-established scholars of South African Pentecostalism are brought together to reflect on pneumatology from various approaches which includes, among others, historical, biblical, migration, commercialisation of religion, discernment of spirits, and human flourishing. From a broader understanding of the function of the Holy Spirit in different streams of Pentecostalism, the argument is that this function has changed with the emergence of the new Prophetic churches in South Africa. This is a fascinating insight into one of the major emerging worldwide religious movements. As such, it will be of great interest to academics in Pentecostal Studies, Christian Studies, Theology, and Religious Studies, as well as African Studies and the Sociology of Religion.

Ruptured Walk Lunko, 2021-12-15. Conflict is an inherent part of life. The Ruptured Walk not only evokes the narrator/protagonist's personal family and spiritual life. It brilliantly and expertly gives us a gaze into the heart of a woman whose search for peace and justice brings her almost to a cataclysmic end. Her vistas take the reader into her confidence as she confides how the pulpit is used to subject the congregants into kowtowing to the pastor's authority and those who dare see it as an object of oppression are tried and cast out as silly tedious deviates. She gently reflects that behind an indomitable character she is known to be still stands a fallible person who battles with some of the choices she has made. In her pursuit to self-correct she becomes a lone voice trying to dissuade others from falling prey to the same unfortunate fate she suffered. This sends her into the tradition of renegades as viewed through the eyes of the pastor. The animosity between the pastor and our protagonist culminates in the decision of her viewing family relations rather than money. This view compels the reader to decide on his or her own virtues: what comes first between church money and family. In the end, the narrative talks to the name of the book: why the author chose not to name it Rapture, which means a feeling of intense pleasure, rather a rupture that means break away. Once again, the woman's decision is against the popular norm. The author expertly takes us through Mehlole's conflicting personal and popular view and she elects the antonym of union, deciding to break away in a complex yet narratively sequential theme of the story. The theme lends itself with ease to the name The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Internationalization of Higher Education in the Global South. Juliet Thondhlana, Evelyn Chiyevo Garwe, Hans de Wit, Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, Futao Huang, Wondwosen Tamrat, 2020-12-10. This Handbook covers a wide range of historical perspectives, realities, research, and practice of internationalization of higher education (IHE) in the global south and makes comparisons to IHE issues in the global north. Drawing on the expertise of 32 academics and policy makers based in and originating from four key regions of focus: Sub-Saharan Africa, North Africa, and the Middle East, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, and the Caribbean. Across 24 chapters, the editors and contributors provide a diverse and unparalleled expose of the status and future aspirations of institutions and nations in relation to IHE. This is the first comprehensive analysis of this growing field and expands the scope of research in the field of comparative and international education in terms of theory and policy development. Includes 36 chapters written by Hadiza Kere Abdulrahman, Salem Abodher, Giovanni Anzola, Pardo Aref Al Attari, Norzaini Azman, Teklu Abate, Bekele Abdellah, Benahnia Andr s Bernasconi, Daniela Craciun, Hans de Wit, Futao Huang, Jocelyne Gacel, vila Evelyn Chiyevo Garwe, Javier Gonz lez Gifty Oforiwa, Gyamera Xiao, HAN Mohamed Salah Harzallah, Bola Ibrahim, Annette Insanally, Sunwoong Kim, Aliya Kuzhabekov, Kamel Mansi, Simon McGrath, Francisco Marmolejo, Georgiana Mihut, Sabelo J. Woldegiyorgis, Ren e Zicman. Media and the Politics of Offence. Anne Graefer, 2019-07-03. This book explores different forms of mediated offence in the context of Trump's America, Brexit, Britain, and the rise of far-right movements across the globe. In this political landscape, the so-called right to offend is often seen as a legitimate weapon against a political correctness gone mad that stifles free speech. Against the backdrop of these current developments, this book aims to generate a productive dialogue among scholars working in a variety of intellectual disciplines geographical locations and methodological traditions The contributors share a concern about the complex and ambiguous nature of offence as well as about the different ways in which this so called negative affect comes to matter in our everyday and socio political lives Through a series of instructive case studies of recent media provocations the authors illustrate how being offended is more than an individual feeling and is instead closely tied to political structures and power relations
