Take Two English Edition:

Parzival A Knightly Epic Volume 1 (of 2) (English Edition) Wolfram von Eschenbach, Example in this ebook In presenting for the first time to English readers the greatest work of Germany's greatest medieval poet a few words of introduction alike for poem and writer may not be out of place The lapse of nearly seven hundred years and the changes which the centuries have worked alike in language and in thought would have naturally operated to render any work unfamiliar still more so when that work was composed in a foreign tongue but indeed it is only within the present century that the original text of the Parzival has been collated from the MSS and made accessible even in its own land to the general reader But the interest which is now felt by many in the Arthurian romances quickened into life doubtless by the genius of the late Poet Laureate and the fact that the greatest composer of our time Richard Wagner has selected this poem as the groundwork of that wonderful drama which a growing consensus of opinion has hailed as the grandest artistic achievement of this century seem to indicate that the time has come when the work of Wolfram von Eschenbach may hope to receive from a wider public than that of his own day the recognition which it so well deserves Of the poet himself we know but little save from the personal allusions scattered throughout his works the dates of his birth and death are alike unrecorded but the frequent notices of contemporary events to be found in his poems enable us to fix with tolerable certainty the period of his literary activity and to judge approximately the outline of his life Wolfram's greatest work the Parzival was apparently written within the early years of the thirteenth century he makes constant allusions to events happening and to works produced within the first decade of that period and as his latest work the Willehalm left unfinished mentions as recent the death of the Landgrave Herman of Thuringia which occurred in 1216 the probability seems to be that the Parzival was written within the first fifteen years of the thirteenth century Inasmuch too as this work bears no traces of immaturity in thought or style it is probable that the date of the poet's birth cannot be placed much later than 1170 The name Wolfram von Eschenbach points to Eschenbach in Bavaria as in all probability the place of his birth as it certainly was of his burial So late as the end of the seventeenth century his tomb with inscription was to be seen in the Frauen kirche of Ober Eschenbach and the fact that within a short distance of the town are to be found localities mentioned in his poems such as Wildberg Abenberg Truhending Wertheim etc seems to show that there too the life of the poet knight was spent By birth as Wolfram himself tells us he belonged to the knightly order Zum Schildesamt bin Ich geboren though whether his family was noble or not is a disputed point in any case Wolfram was a poor man as the humorous allusions which he makes to his poverty abundantly testify Yet he does not seem to have led the life of a wandering singer as did his famous contemporary Walther von der Vogelweide if Wolfram journeyed as he probably did it was rather in search of knightly adventures he tells us Durchstreifen muss Der Lande viel Wer Schildesamt verwalten will and though fully conscious of his gift of song yet he systematically exalts his office of knight above that of poet The period when Wolfram lived and sang we cannot say wrote for by his own confession he could

 CHAPTER I The same day which saw our friends in the country house at Ostia and the bond of love sealed between Aurelius and Claudia had been one of infinite agitation and annoyance to the Emperor Domitian The very first thing in the morning came vexatious tidings from the town and provinces At the earliest dawn inscriptions had been discovered on several of the fountains columns and triumphal arches of which the sting was more or less covertly directed against the Palatium and the person of Caesar Enough was attached to the base of a portrait bust The fruit is ripe was legible on the arch of Drusus In the fourth eighth and ninth regions the revolutionary question was to be seen in many places Where is Brutus and at the entrance of the baths of Titus in blood red letters stared the appeal Nero is raging Galba why dost thou tarry Domitian who had heard all this from his spies long before the court officials even suspected what had happened received these courtiers in the very worst of tempers His lev e was not yet ended when a mounted messenger brought the news that a centurion had raised the standard of revolt on the Germanic frontier but that he had been defeated and slain after a short struggle At noonday the soldiers of the town guard seized an astrologer Ascletrio by name who had publicly announced that ruin threatened Caesar Before the moon should have twelve times rounded so ran his prophecy Caesar s blood would be shed by violence The immortals were wroth at his reprobate passion for a woman who by all the laws of gods and men he had no right to love At first Domitian laughed His connection with Julia seemed to him so dull and pointless a weapon for his foe to turn against him that the stupidity of it astonished him However he commanded that the astrologer should be brought before him Who paid you he enquired with a scowl when the prisoner was dragged into the room No one my lord You lie My lord as I hope for the mercy of the gods I do not lie Then you really assert that you actually read in the stars the forecast you have uttered Yes my lord I have only declared what my skill has revealed to me The superstitious sovereign turned pale Well then wise prophet you can of course foretell your own end Yes my lord Before this day is ended I shall be torn to pieces by dogs Domitian looked scornfully round on the circle of men I fancy he said that I can upset the prophetic science of this worthy man Carry him off at once to execution and take care that his body is burnt before sundown The astrologer bowed his head in sullen resignation He was led away to the field on the Esquiline and immediately beheaded before an immense concourse within an hour Domitian was informed that all was over At this news his temper and spirit improved a little He congratulated himself on the prompt decision which had so signally proved the falsehood of the prophecy At dinner he carried on an eager conversation with Latinus the actor who among other farcical parts filled the role of news monger You are later than usual to day said Caesar graciously What detained you To be continue in this ebook
