Imagined Borders/Lived Ambiguity B. Garrick Harden,2019-06-07 Imagined Borders Lived Ambiguity Intersections of Repression and Resistance examines the theoretical versatility of the concept of borders The impulse to categorize while present from antiquity in Western culture has increased in intensity since the advent of the modern age with its corresponding political rise in the ideology of the sovereign nation state While immigration is the common mental image Westerners have when discussing borders immigration is only the tip of the iceberg for this book The belief in mutually exclusive clear and concrete categories creates large swathes of exceptions where people live ambiguous lives nationally racially sexually ethnically and in terms of gender Identity is discussed in the book through the lens of borders and ambiguity The fervor over categorization best embodied in recent political history by the Trump administration in the United States is both a desire to identify and control dangerous populations but also creates the very ambiguity categorization is intended to alleviate The volume weaves together discussions on the subjective meaning making in ambiguity policies that create ambiguity historical creations of ambiguity that persist to the present and theoretical considerations on the relationship between borders and ambiguity Civil Rights Journal ,2000 Printing the Revolution!

Clacton-on-Sea and the Surrounding Coastline in the Great War Ken Porter,2017-11-30 Clacton on Sea and the surrounding coastline is part of the Sunshine Coast an area of sandy beaches and low level cliffs facing the North Sea This book gives a brief history of the major nearby villages Brightlingsea St Oysths Clacton on Sea Holland on Sea Frinton and Walton on the Naze as they developed from agricultural areas to seaside resorts in the mid to late 1800s and then into heavily defended hives of activity They were considered by the authorities to be convenient spots for foreign invasion and as a result mock invasion exercises at Clacton had taken place since the early 1900s Being close to the sea many of the inhabitants were heavily involved with yachting and the Royal National Lifeboat Institution so it s not surprising that a great number joined the Royal or Merchant Navy Brightlingsea became a major naval port and the Australian and New Zealander s Engineers trained there for four years Clacton itself saw over a 1 000 men sign up and it also had a number of Military and Convalescent Homes that treated injured men Middlesex Hospital for one treated over 9 000 men The local villages produced a considerable number of men who were awarded the Military Medal Cross and Walton on the Naze produced one VC in Herbert Columbine The tremendous efforts of others are also covered in particular those of the local women folk A number of appropriate poems many written at the time are included throughout the book as well as rarely seen photographs and insightful reports from the local papers of that period
