A Brief History of the Martial Arts Jonathan Clements, 2016-10-13 If I had to pick a single general martial arts history book in English I would recommend A Brief History of the Martial Arts by Dr Jonathan Clements. RICHARD BEITLICH Martial History Team blog From Shaolin warrior monks to the movies of Bruce Lee a new history of the evolution of East Asian styles of unarmed combat from Kung Fu to Ninjutsu Folk tales of the Shaolin Temple depict warrior monks with superhuman abilities. Today dozens of East Asian fighting styles trace their roots back to the Buddhist brawlers of Shaolin although any quest for the true story soon wanders into a labyrinth of forgeries secret texts and modern retellings. This new study approaches the martial arts from their origins in military exercises and callisthenics. It examines a rich folklore from old wuxia tales of crime fighting heroes to modern kung fu movies. Centre stage is given to the stories that martial artists tell themselves about themselves with accounts both factual and fictional of famous practitioners including China's Yim Wing chun Wong Fei hong and Ip Man as well as Japanese counterparts such as Kano Jigoro Itosu Anko and So Doshin. The history of martial arts encompasses secret societies and religious rebels with intimate glimpses of the histories of China Korea and Japan their conflicts and transformations. The book also charts the migration of martial arts to the United States and beyond. Special attention is paid to the turmoil of the twentieth century the cross cultural influence of Japanese colonies in Asia and the post war rise of martial arts in sport and entertainment including the legacy of Bruce Lee the dilemma of the ninja and the global audience for martial arts in fiction.

Martial Arts Training Through

The Teacher's Eyes GM David J. Harrell, 2016-11-04 Embedded in the pages is the story of the making of a teacher of the martial arts and the methods he uses to teach martial arts to children and adults at the Traditional Martial Arts Institute based in Aberdeen Scotland The author Grand Master David J Harrell has dedicated most of his life to the study and practice of an ancient art of self defence and to the development of those skills that would allow him to share his knowledge with the next generation His book tells the story of his personal journey in martial arts and the lessons learned from fifty three years of training The book begins with the author's introduction to martial arts in his home town in Suffolk at a time when segregation usually led to the exclusion of black children and adults from these white dominated activities Even at this early stage GM Harrell had a strong desire to teach and he asked his first and every subsequent teacher to teach him to teach the martial arts He goes on to describe those things that he learned from each of his teachers about how to share knowledge and skill with students of all ages and ability levels In addition he reveals numerous insights gained from his many years of teaching and training The book explains how he makes use of modern teaching methods and resources to replicate and remain faithful to what has been handed down to him by his instructors including the traditions and values of martial art training
