beautiful smile slowly faded away by looking at his face but he didn't give a damn There's nothing about us Arabella we're done Why can't you just let me fucking live peacefully with my mate he snarled She gasped because of his angry voice little by little her eyes moistened and she clutched her skirt and lowered her head He felt his heart was aching because of the way he shouted but he was just annoyed by her She kept coming to him with so many lies every day it was true that they were lovers but everything had changed His heart didn't love her anymore now he only loved his mate so he could not hurt the woman he loved She again looked at him and smiled painfully she hid the pain but he could clearly see how hurt she was He knew her more than anyone she always used to bite her lips when she was hurt and sad as she was doing right now Why can't you face the fact Arabella We are not mates You will find your mate Just don't come to me anymore I don't want to see you He rubbed his forehead as he said that He looked at the time and saw it was already four in the evening His lips curled upwards remembering his mate who was waiting for him at his house He sighed and got up from the chair as he walked away from Arabella How can you tell me that I'm not your mate while my mind was screaming that you're my mate He stopped and looked back at Arabella who was looking at him with tear-filled eyes He hated seeing her tears when they were together but now her tears were nothing to him He was also surprised by how fast he changed Don't lie to me Arabella you always did nothing but lie to me I'm done with your lies he said as he looked into her eyes L.
