Richard A. Valicek,2010-05-28 It is the fifteenth century A time when bold knights would learn that solidarity among men is the fortitude needed to destroy the evil lurking in the shadows In a land far away called Alamptria the free people of Elysium are under threat of the evil force from mount Drone home of the dark lord Makoor and his legion of vampires The former Elysian king is brutally murdered Terrible repercussions for those carrying out the assassination are ordered by the council of Confidus From the land of Petoshine the great elf wizard Grongone bestowed three claymores of extraordinary power to three powerful knights from Elysium who will shape the land and bestow freedom Time is running out and only the Seaton brothers with their claymores of power can defeat the undead The princess Melina Lumis has been fooled by the treacherous Tyrus Clore and taken to a far off land of Plaphorius where she is under preparation of willingly giving herself to the world of the undead A single seed of a vampire is planted in the city of Koriston in hopes of annihilating the human race Melina s beloved soul mate Caprius Seaton and the Elysian army must race against the sunset to save the people from the evil Tyrus Clore and his legion of doom

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei,1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical

Blacksmiths of Ilamba Crislayne Alfagali, 2023-05-08 This study analyzes the establishment of an iron foundry in the interior 18th century of Angola It was a fruit of the Portuguese Enlightenment which encouraged investment in manufacturing particularly of iron a metal indispensable for military and technological purposes However the plans faced the resistance of African blacksmiths and founders who refused to learn foreign techniques and work processes By emphasizing Central African agency the book highlights the successful strategies of historical actors who scholars have largely ignored Based upon a wide variety of sources from Brazilian Portuguese and Angolan archives the book reconstructs how Africans were taken to work at the foundry and the important role they played in developing the form of production employed there By emphasizing continuities with African technology and the quality of the iron produced it counters interpretations of the project as an example of the failure of the Portuguese Enlightenment The analysis demonstrates the circulation of knowledge about iron production thus revitalizing debates that have posited knowledge transmission as unidirectional It also highlights the relationship between local political leaders and the colonial government in addition to elucidating the processes by which workers were organized

In the Path of Allah John Ralph Willis, 2013-04-03 A West African Sufi and religious reformer c 1794 1864 struggled to reconcile the temporal achievements of his jihad with his mystical calling The fame of Shaykh Omar rested on his reputation as a worker of miracles and the success of jihad in his path to Allah

Migration and Mortality in Africa and the Atlantic World, 1700-1900 Philip D. Curtin, 2024-10-28 These papers explore the history of the tropical regions of the Atlantic basin sometimes focused on the Caribbean sometimes on Africa but always with a comparative dimension The Atlantic basin is central to most of these comparisons but they are a part of an even broader effort to capture the perspective of world history. Some deal with the shores of the Atlantic in the framework of economic history but the author's concern is most particularly with the role of the environment in history especially the disease environment. Disease was particularly important for migrants who moved from one disease environment to another. In the tropical Atlantic disease was a crucial factor in the formation of the slave trade affecting both the involuntary passengers and those who came out from Europe to manage the trade.

Historical Notices Edo Kabuki in Transition Satoko Shimazaki, 2016-04-26 Satoko Shimazaki revisits three centuries of kabuki theater reframing it as a key player in the formation of an early modern urban identity in Edo Japan and exploring the process that resulted in its re-creation in Tokyo as a national theatrical tradition. Challenging the prevailing understanding of early modern kabuki as a subversive entertainment and a threat to shogunal authority Shimazaki argues that kabuki instilled a sense of shared history in the inhabitants of Edo present day Tokyo by invoking worlds or sekai derived from earlier military tales and overlaying them onto the present. She then analyzes the profound changes that took place in Edo kabuki toward the end of the early modern period which witnessed the rise of a new type of character the vengeful female ghost. Shimazaki's bold reinterpretation of the history of kabuki centers on the popular ghost play Tokaido Yotsuya kaidan The Eastern Seaboard Highway Ghost Stories at Yotsuya 1825 by Tsuruya Nanboku IV. Drawing not only on kabuki scripts but also on a wide range of other sources from theatrical ephemera and popular fiction to medical and religious texts she sheds light on the development of the ubiquitous trope of the vengeful female ghost and its illumination of new themes at a time when the samurai world was losing its relevance. She explores in detail the process by which nineteenth century playwrights began dismantling the Edo tradition of presenting the past by abandoning their long standing reliance on the sekai. She then reveals how in the 1920s a new generation of kabuki playwrights critics and scholars reinvented the form again textualizing kabuki so that it could be pressed into service as a guarantor of national identity.

Slavery in the History of Muslim Black Africa Humphrey J. Fisher, 2001-08 Utilizing the accounts of observers and those who participated in the institution of slavery slavers travellers and slaves themselves and the records kept by the judicial institutions of Islam Fisher African history U of London explores the political religious economic and social forces surrounding the growth and legitimization of the institution of slavery in Muslim Africa from the 10th century to the 19th century. He explains how the institution differed in nature and harshness both geographically and across time offering stories where slaves were relatively well treated and rose to prominent places in society as well as stories in which slaves were treated brutally and often rebelled. The cultural & heritage guide for Congo, 2025-09-25 Manifestations of Mana Paul van der Grijp, 2014 This book explores the role of mana in past and present configurations of chiefly power in the Pacific. Chiefs are often seen as transitional figures between traditional tribal or feudal and modern forms of leadership the latter characterized by rationality and the nation state with its accompanying bureaucracy Today the political arena in the Pacific although occupied by presidents members of parliament and court justices is still ruled by chiefs supporting their authority by tradition including the notion of mana Mana may be defined as divine inspiration or energy that manifests itself in persons objects places and natural phenomena Polynesian chiefs have mana because of their descent from ancient gods Other key concepts such as asymmetrical ideology mythical constructions of social reality and social drama are elaborated and applied to a wide specter of ethnographic examples The configuration and reconfiguration of Tongan chieftaincy and kingship in this book are analyzed as an extended case study of the gradual and sometimes shock like integration of a Polynesian culture into a global structure a nation state partly imposed from the outside missionarization colonization but also generated from within including state formation and the recent quest for democracy Together with other Polynesian examples this forms a relevant illustration of both continuity and change in the configuration of mana and chieftaincy in processes of globalization in the Pacific Baba Sy, the World Champion of 1963-1964 of 10x10 Draughts - Volume I Govert Westerveld, 2015-08-20

This book should be considered a historical book as it is the draughts career of Baba Sy a prominent Senegalese player He was able to be the best in the world without reading any books He had a natural talent and was a self made man thanks to the game of checkers I have witnessed the achievements of the great Baba Sy and I have been in the early stage of the great players like Harm Wiersma and Ton Sijbrands on which I predicted in 1964 that they would be a future world champions So I know the mentality that one must have to succeed in this mind sport My 40 year stay in Spain and my research on the Moors permits me to know more about the Islamic custom And so I am now in a much better position than 40 years ago to comment properly on the life of Baba Sy Islam and Social Change in French West Africa Sean Hanretta, 2009-03-23 Exploring the history and religious community of a group of Muslim Sufi mystics in colonial French West Africa this study shows the relationship between religious social and economic change in the region It highlights the role that intellectuals played in shaping social and cultural change and illuminates the specific religious ideas and political contexts that gave their efforts meaning In contrast to depictions that emphasize the importance of international networks and anti modern reaction in twentieth century Islamic reform this book claims that in West Africa such movements were driven by local forces and constituted only the most recent round in a set of centuries old debates about the best way for pious people to confront social injustice It argues that traditional historical methods prevent an appreciation of Muslim intellectual history in Africa by misunderstanding the nature of information gathering during colonial rule and misconstruing the relationship between documents and oral history Reconfiguring Slavery Benedetta Rossi, 2016-02-26 A fascinating collection that advances a renewed conceptual framework for understanding slavery in West Africa today instead of retracing the end of West African slavery this work highlights the preliminary contours of its recent reconfigurations Mystical Islam Julian Baldick, 1989
