Woman and Socialism (English Edition) August Bebel, 2014-11-12 Example in this ebook We are living in an age of great social transformations that are steadily progressing In all strata of society we perceive an unsettled state of mind and an increasing restlessness denoting a marked tendency toward profound and radical changes Many questions have arisen and are being discussed with growing interest in ever widening circles One of the most important of these questions and one that is constantly coming into greater prominence is the woman question The woman question deals with the position that woman should hold in our social organism and seeks to determine how she can best develop her powers and her abilities in order to become a useful member of human society endowed with equal rights and serving society according to her best capacity From our point of view this question coincides with that other question In what manner should society be organized to abolish oppression exploitation misery and need and to bring about the physical and mental welfare of individuals and of society as a whole To us then the woman question is only one phase of the general social question that at present occupies all intelligent minds its final solution can only be attained by removing social extremes and the evils which are a result of such extremes Nevertheless the woman question demands our special consideration What the position of woman has been in ancient society what her position is to day and what it will be in the coming social order are questions that deeply concern at least one half of humanity Indeed in Europe they concern a majority of organized society because women constitute a majority of the population Moreover the prevailing conceptions concerning the development of woman s social position during successive stages of history are so faulty that enlightenment on this subject has become a necessity Ignorance concerning the position of woman chiefly accounts for the prejudice that the woman s movement has to contend with among all classes of people by no means least among the women themselves Many even venture to assert that there is no woman question at all since woman s position has always been the same and will remain the same in the future because nature has destined her to be a wife and a mother and to confine her activities to the home Everything that is beyond the four narrow walls of her home and is not closely connected with her domestic duties is not supposed to concern her In the woman question then we find two contending parties just as in the labor question which relates to the position of the workingman in human society Those who wish to maintain everything as it is are quick to relegate woman to her so called natural profession believing that they have thereby settled the whole matter They do not recognize that millions of women are not placed in a position enabling them to fulfill their natural function of wifehood and motherhood owing to reasons that we shall discuss at length later on They furthermore do not recognize that to millions of other women their natural profession is a failure because to them marriage has become a yoke and a condition of slavery and they are obliged to drag on their lives in misery and despair To be continue in this ebook Holy Bible, Translated, Revised and Corrected from the 1898 version (English Edition) Edição Digital, 2024-09-11 Holy Bible Translated Revised and Corrected from the 1898 version Discover Eternal

Arab Women Novelists Joseph T. Zeidan, 1995-01-01 This book assesses the contribution of women to the Arabic novel both in subject matter and form It begins by tracing the struggle over women's rights in the Arab world particularly the gradual improvement in women's access to education the first area in which women made significant gains Subsequent chapters discuss Arab women writers remarkable talents and determination to overcome the barriers of a male dominated culture survey the 1950s and 1960s during which women's writing gained momentum and more women writers emerged and address the shift in emphasis and attitude that women's literature underwent in the late 1960s especially following the 1967 Arab Israeli war when women novelists began to place more stress on international politics Zeidan adapts Western based feminist literary theory to a discussion of Arab women's literature but refrains from imposing that theory inappropriately on literature whose context differs significantly He compares the women's movements in Arab and Western cultures and the development of women's literature in those cultures and uses these comparisons to highlight similarities and differences between them as well as to consider how one affected the other His analysis culminates in the early 1980s the end of the formative years when women's writing had become a familiar part of Arabic literature in general and a positive reflection on the collective Arab consciousness
