Psychology and Sociology Applied to Medicine E-Book Edwin Roland van Teijlingen, Gerald M Humphris, 2018-11-29

Now in its fourth edition this definitive and popular introduction to human behaviour in the context of health and illness includes three new chapters many new contributors and a new co editor It is arranged in nine sections to cover the core concepts of psychology and sociology as they apply to medicine The life cycle Development of the person Society and health Preventing illness and promoting health Illness behaviour and the doctor patient encounter Illness and disability Coping with illness and disability How do health services work How do you fit into all this Topics presented as self contained double page spreads Cases throughout to reinforce understanding of important concepts Boxes and discussion points throughout The authors comprise psychologists sociologists and doctors Highly illustrated 48 new contributors New co editor Gerry Humphris 3 new chapters Malnutrition and obesity Urban nature health and well being LGBT Health Self-advocacy in the Lives of People with Learning Difficulties Dan Goodley, 2000 How do people with the label of learning difficulties challenge disabling environments What role can professionals play in supporting such challenges How do self advocacy groups contribute to disability politics and the development of theories of disability This timely book sets out to answer these questions for students teachers and practitioners working in the field It examines self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties The term learning difficulties is used to describe people who have been labelled at some point in their lives as requiring specialist mental handicap services Learning difficulties is preferred over other synonyms such as mental handicap mental impairment or learning disabilities because it is the term preferred by many in the self advocacy movement the focus of this book Hitherto a number of books have introduced and examined the notion of self advocacy This volume goes beyond these studies to offer an appraisal of self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties that is grounded in their own experiences It redresses the dominant focus on learning difficulties as pathology or tragedy highlighting the ways in which people so labelled are fighting for their own human rights in a disabling society through their involvement in self advocacy groups It outlines a number of lessons for supporters policy makers professionals and service providers in relation to the resilience of self advocates with learning difficulties and gives examples of good practice The Political Economy of Universal Healthcare in Africa Philip C. Aka, Hassan Wahab, Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2022-04-27 The global rise in pandemics most recently COVID 19 and other health challenges some of which are due to climate change have imposed significant challenges on the healthcare systems in economies around the world Thus this book deals with an issue that is very timely and relevant not just in Africa but globally It critically assesses healthcare reforms in Ghana under the Fourth Republic since 1993 Although it focuses on Ghana's National Health Insurance Scheme of 2003 the book instructively goes beyond this program The book argues that although Ghana is a bellwether of healthcare reforms in Africa its healthcare initiatives are still far from the service haven of healthcare as a human right Themes that animate the book's argument include the need to translate human rights law such as the right to health into practical policies that work for ordinary citizens Key highlights of the book include an increased accent on health as a human right emphasis on comparative analysis in healthcare studies and the formulation of a four hallmark framework embedded in economics law politics and human rights to act as a guide for assessment of healthcare reforms in Africa in particular and Ghana more specifically Using Ghana as a case study and analytical window into the world the book offers a valuable and timely resource for academics students and policymakers across the disciplines of development and healthcare economics law public policy political science sociology and African and Caribbean studies as well as in various fields in health science Women, Stigma, and Desistance from Crime Gilly Sharpe, 2023-10-31 How do young women negotiate their identity in the shadow of a criminal past What expectations can these women have and what constraints do they face in embracing change and reform In this new book Gilly Sharpe returns to the group of women interviewed in her bestselling book Offending Girls to ask these questions and more Building on wide ranging interviews with young adult women who have experienced a highly punitive climate in both youth justice and welfare policy this book analyses their vivid personal accounts of stigmatisation and devaluation as former lawbreakers welfare claimants and mothers and examines their gendered transitions from youth criminalisation into adulthood Women Stigma and Desistance from Crime exposes how stigma which is rooted in structural inequality and thrives in societies with deep economic and social divisions devalues working class and marginalised women and diminishes their lives It offers a unique analysis of how criminal stigma is shaped by class based condescension welfare inaction and school based disciplinary punishment and reveals how stigma is reproduced over time across education welfare and penal institutions Meticulously researched and the first study to examine how the lives of young women previously enmeshed in the youth justice system unfold as they transition to adulthood this book will be of interest to scholars and students of criminology and criminal justice sociology social work social policy gender and youth studies and to practitioners and policy makers in these fields Writing Asia: From the inside, Asia-Pacific literatures in Englishes, 2007 Environment & Planning, 2000 The Iowa Publisher and the Bulletin of the Iowa Press Association, 1929 A Newly Qualified Teacher's Manual Sara Bubb, 2003 Based on over two years experience of running courses and researching provision for NQTs the book looks at what NQTs are entitled to and how to make the most of it Addresses and Journal of Proceedings of the National Teachers' Associations at Cleveland, Ohio, 1871 The Yale Alumni Weekly, 1920 Forum and Century, 1939 The Transpersonal Relationship in Psychotherapy Petrůska Clarkson, 2002 Pacific Magazine, 1927 Pan-Pacific Progress ..., 1927 Editor & Publisher, 1916 Proceedings, Abstracts of Lectures and a Brief Report of the Discussions of the National Teachers' Association, the National Association of School Superintendents and the American Normal School Association National Education Association of the United States, 1925
