Three of the stories included in this collection feature the character Jim Skaife who has appeared in the author's earlier works. In Tracking we see him as a young boy in a northern town exploring friendships and the dark bombed out slums. In The Wooden Ship we return to Jim's infancy and a unloved gift given by a German POW. The eponymous story Kharshouf features our central character as he reminisces about his time in Alexandria an experience he has shared with the author. Artichoke is an Arabic word originally kharshouf our guest had explained at the beginning of his stay. And when Mr Khrushchev the Russian leader but not for much longer came to Egypt in 1964 people started nicknaming him Kharshouf not because he resembled one all that spectacularly but because of the similar sounds to the words. It made you look at politics in a different way when you realised that the world could be blown to bits by an artichoke. Jack is influenced by writers as diverse as Graham Greene and Wilkie Collins. A sequence infused with a northern ambience a strong setting and the characters battle against adverse circumstances and survive. Father and the Boys George Ade, 1924 The Silk Road and Beyond Ivor Whitall, 2021-02-01 True accounts of one man's long distance trucking career that began in the late 1960s these adventurous anecdotes are told by one of the first pioneers in long distance trucking to the Middle East Ivor Whittall. From traveling overseas to Kuwait driving the desert trek between Jordan and Saudi Arabia and surviving the infamously dangerous and sometimes deadly Tahir Pass in Eastern Turkey that has claimed the lives of truckers with its haphazard landslides and avalanches and tricky mountainous terrain readers get a driver's seat perspective to Whittall's daring career. With 72 contemporary color photos of trucks drivers passports visas and custom forms readers will be thrust into what it was like being a long distance trucker in the 1970s. Full of disastrous near misses border control mishaps intense home sickness
