Tourism Phase 1 2014:

Tourism Spaces Alan A. Lew, 2021-07-19 Geographic space is a fundamental and essential construct of the physical reality within which we live move and construct our world Through space we create others anything that is any distance from us and we experience time by moving from one place point to another Because it is so fundamental to our experience we often take geographic space for granted Tourism Spaces Environments Locations and Movements shows some of the ways that geographers and other social scientists bring spatial considerations to the forefront of our research and understanding of tourism This is seen through the spatial arrangements and distributions of tourism phenomena such as attractions destinations and in the spatial behaviour of tourists themselves Today these spatial arrangements and patterns are increasingly being captured analysed and understood through various forms of formal and informal digital data The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Tourism Microentrepreneurship Duarte B. Morais, 2021-09-27 Tourism Microentrepreneurship shares scholarship and best practices to educate practitioners and to encourage more research on the development of microentrepreneurship and its impact on destination communities

Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i.e. development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies Tourism Marketing Nilanjan Ray, Dilip Kumar Das, Raj Kumar, 2017-09-01 Tourism Marketing A Strategic Approach presents a variety of practical application tools skills practices models approaches and strategies that are proving themselves effective in tourism marketing The volume considers overall infrastructure socioeconomic conditions and modern tourism business infrastructure in discussing the efficiency of good strategies and practices and their impact on business and economic growth Tourism is one of the fastest growing industries and in the next few decades it will play a role in many fields such human resources national economic growth and more

Marketing and Managing Tourism Destinations Alastair M. Morrison, 2018-09-13 Marketing and Managing Tourism

Destinations is a comprehensive and integrated introductory textbook covering both destination marketing and destination management in one volume. It focuses on how destination management is planned, implemented and evaluated as well as the management and operations of destination management organizations (DMOs) how they conduct business, major opportunities, challenges and issues they face to compete for the global leisure and business travel markets. This second edition has been updated to include a new chapter on visitor management that includes a section on crisis and disaster management. New material on destination leadership and coordination. New and revised content on digital marketing. New and updated international case examples throughout to show the practical realities and approaches to managing different destinations around the world. It is illustrated in full colour and packed with features to encourage reflection on main themes, spur critical thinking and show theory in practice. Written by an author with many years of industry practice, university teaching and professional training experience, this book is the essential guide to the subject for tourism, hospitality and events students and industry practitioners alike. Scenario Planning and Tourism Futures Albert Postma, Stefan Hartman, Ian

Yeoman, 2024-12-10. This book offers a practical guide for scenario planning to make sense of the future of tourism for practitioners, researchers and students. It provides an overview of the theoretical development of scenario planning, describes the scenario planning method and puts it into the context of strategic foresight. A variety of scenario planning and futures case studies are presented which demonstrate how scenario planning is used and deployed. Each case study is drawn from the European Tourism Futures Institute's 12 years of practice, emphasising the different stages of the scenario planning method and includes learning points and discussion questions to help readers understand key concepts, theories and applications. Sector Plan for Tourism, 2013-2017, 2013. The Report: Saudi Arabia 2015 Oxford Business

Group, 2015-09-22. While Saudi Arabia's economy remains dominated by its hydrocarbons sector, several other sectors have emerged in recent years as key propellers of economic growth. The Kingdom's financial services industries have continued to expand steadily despite the liquidity challenges posed by falling oil prices. Trade and investment are being treated as key priorities as the government looks to negotiate this altered economic landscape, aiming to leverage its large population, high per capita income and many sea and air links. The country's capital markets sector meanwhile is poised for a period of significant growth on the back of the opening of Tadawul to international investors in 2015 and the raft of regulatory upgrades implemented as a result. The domestic insurance industry, which remains dominated by the motor and medical segments, has enjoyed double-digit growth over the past five years in both revenue and net profit. Elsewhere, the targets outlined in Vision 2030 indicate that a period of greater opportunity and integration is on the horizon for private players operating in core sectors such as health care, utilities, industry and ICT. MEED, 2008-04.
