Experiences Noel Scott, Eric Laws, Philipp Boksberger, 2013-09-13 This book provides a review of the current theory and practice of experiential tourism and how it is marketed Many societies today are characterised by widespread individual wealth of an order previously confined to the elite with the consequence that ownership of ordinary physical goods is no longer a distinguishing factor Instead people are now seeking the extraordinary with examples being bodies enhanced through surgery personal fitness trainers and in the case of leisure and tourism seeking unique and unusual places to visit and activities to undertake This trend manifests in the increasing consumption of services and the addition of experiential elements to physical goods by businesses aware of societal changes The trend is enhanced by rapidly changing technology and economic production methods providing new sectors of the world's population with access to the consumption experiences that are repeatedly featured in the media This is the experience economy characterised by a search by consumers for fantasies feelings and fun This book was based on a special issue of Journal of Hospitality Marketing Management Tourism as a Pathway to Hope and Happiness Tej Vir Singh, Richard Butler, David A. Fennell, 2022-12-05

Tourism is often viewed as a phenomenon that brings out the worst in human nature Self interest overuse of resources injustice and cultural erosion are but a few examples This book explores the contrasting view that tourism can be a pathway to hope and happiness The chapters address areas including wellbeing positive psychology hopeful tourism mindfulness peace responsible tourism and spirituality The volume examines the role of tourism in preserving natural wonders and architectural masterpieces bringing out the best in tourists and locals and adding economic value if planned developed and managed sustainably It will be a useful resource for students and researchers in tourism psychology and philosophy

Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Ethnic and Minority Cultures as Tourist Attractions Anya Diekmann, Melanie Kay Smith, 2015-01-15 This book focuses on ethnic and minority communities in urban contexts and the ways in which their cultures are represented in tourism development It offers a multi disciplinary approach which draws on examples and case studies of ethnic and minority communities and cultural tourism development from all around the world including slums in India favelas in Brazil Chinatowns in Australia Jewish quarters in Central and Eastern Europe ethnic villages in China the African district of Brussels the gay quarter in Cape Town and a desert town in Israel It offers a positive perspective on ethnic and minority cultures and communities at a time when social and political support is lacking in many countries This book will be a useful resource for those studying and researching cultural and urban tourism urban planning and development community studies and urban and cultural geography
