Tourism Question Paper For June 2013

Western Australia. Parliament

Tourism Question Paper For June 2013:

Tourism and Citizenship Raoul Bianchi, Marcus Stephenson, 2014-02-24 More than sixty years since the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights first enshrined the right to freedom of movement in an international charter of human rights the issue of mobility and the right to tourism itself have become increasingly significant areas of scholarly interest and political debate However despite the fact that cross border travel implies certain citizenship rights as well as the material capacity to travel the manifold intersections between tourism and citizenship have not received the attention they deserve in the literature This book endeavours to fill this gap by being the first to fully examine the role of tourism in wider society through a critically informed sociological reflection on the unfolding relationships between international tourism and distinct renderings of citizenship with particular emphasis on the ideological and political alignments between the freedom of movement and the right to travel The text weaves its analysis of citizenship and travel in the context of addressing large scale societal transformations engendered by globalization neoliberalism and the geopolitical realignments between states as well as comprehending the internal reconfiguring of the relationship between citizens and states themselves By doing so it focuses on key themes including tourism and social citizenship rights race culture and minority rights states markets and the freedom of movement tourism peace and geo politics consumerism and class and ethical tourism global citizenship and cosmopolitanism The book concludes that the advancement of genuinely democratic and just forms of tourism must be commensurate with demands for distributive justice and a democratic politics of mobility encompassing all of humanity This timely and significant contribution to the sociology and politics of international tourism through the lens of citizenship is a must read for students and scholars in both in the fields of tourism and social science The royalties received from this book will be donated to the International Porter Protection Group

Tourism in the Green Economy Maharaj Vijay Reddy, Keith Wilkes, 2015-06-05 The concept of the green economy has now entered mainstream policy debates and been endorsed by a range of United Nations and other organizations The Rio 20 UN conference specifically drew attention to the green economy approach in the context of sustainable development to move away from business as usual practices act to end poverty address environmental destruction and build a bridge to the sustainable future It is increasingly recognized that the tourism sector can make a major contribution to the green economy through more sustainable practices climate change mitigation and ecotourism The role of tourism sector will continue to be crucial in the post 2015 sustainable development agenda too However there are ambiguities about how tourism and allied industries can maximize their contribution to human well being and ensure environmentally sustainability embracing issues of political economy geography and business ethics In this context this book provides consensus about what the green economy entails what role tourism can play in a green economy early responses from many countries on going and emerging research initiatives that will enable tourism s transition to a green economy The chapters address three key themes understanding the Green Economy concept and the role of tourism responses and initiatives in greening tourism and emerging techniques and research implications A wide range of case studies from around the world and in different contexts is included to demonstrate the extent of the challenge and range of opportunities for the tourism industry The Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Hospitality Education Dianne Dredge, David Airey, Michael J. Gross, 2014-10-03 Tourism is much more than an economic sector it is also a social cultural political and environmental force that drives societal change Understanding responding to and managing this change will inevitably require knowledge workers who are able to address a range of problems associated with tourism travel hospitality and the increasingly complex operating environment within which they exist The purpose of this Handbook is to provide an insightful and authoritative account of the various issues that are shaping the higher educational world of tourism hospitality and events education and to highlight the creative inventive and innovative ways that educators are responding to these issues It takes as its central focus a dynamic curriculum space shaped by internal and external factors from global to local scales a variety of values and perspectives contributed by a range of stakeholders and shifting philosophies about education policy pedagogy and teaching practice A benchmark for future curriculum design and development it critically reviews the development of conceptual and theoretical approaches to tourism and hospitality education The Handbook is composed of contributions from specialists in the field is interdisciplinary in coverage and international in scope through its authorship and content Providing a systematic guide to the current state of knowledge on tourism and hospitality education and its future direction this is essential reading for students researchers and academics in Tourism Hospitality Events Recreation and Leisure Studies Sustainable Tourism on a Finite Planet Megan Epler Wood, 2017-02-28 This book helps all those involved in international tourism develop the new skills tools and investments required to protect irreplaceable global resources from the impacts of escalating tourism demand over the next 50 years It documents how technology and the growing global middle class are driving a travel revolution which requires a new paradigm in managing tourism destinations Travel and tourism supply chains and business models for hotels tour operators cruise lines airlines and airports are analysed and environmental management techniques are proposed for each sector A pragmatic set of solutions are offered to support the transition to lower impact tourism development worldwide It recommends that decision makers assess the current and future value of natural social and cultural capital to guide investment in destinations and protect vital resources Case studies illustrate why budgets to protect local destinations are consistently underestimated and offer guidance on new metrics Innovative approaches are proposed to support the transition to green infrastructure protect incomparable landscapes and engage local people in the monitoring of vital indicators to protect local resources It provides students professionals and policy makers with far reaching recommendations for new educational programs professional expertise financing and legal frameworks to lower tourism s rapidly escalating carbon impacts and protect the health and well being of local populations ecosystems cultures and monuments worldwide Stakeholders Management and Ecotourism Dimitrios Diamantis, 2021-07-05 Stakeholders Management and Ecotourism looks at the thematic area of stakeholder management within the concept of ecotourism It reviews the paradoxes that exist within the stakeholder relationships ranging from building community resilience collaboration aspects measurement grids product development governance matters and managing conflict It highlights through its chapters the diversity of issues as well as their possible solutions This book will be of interest to students practitioners as well as to faculty that do research in these areas The collection of chapters in this book can be used to give a theoretical underpinning to stakeholder management within ecotourism and provide a global applied perspective through the use of the case studies from an intellectual group of academics and practitioners The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ecotourism New Jersey Register ,2012 UNDOC, Current Index ,1996 Annual Report 2014 World Tourism Organization, World Trade Organization WTO, Wto, 2014-05-31 The Annual Report 2014 provides an overview of WTO activities in 2013 and early 2014 A brief summary of the year is followed by an in depth review of the WTO s main areas of activity National Budget Framework Paper for the Financial Years ...
