Responses to Literature

James M. Macon,Diane Bewell,MaryEllen Vogt,1991 This booklet was prepared for use as a staff development presentation in response to an official statement by International Reading Association s

Executive Board that literature and the reading and writing that goes with it must be the foundation of the language arts curriculum The purpose of the booklet is to provide alternatives to conventional teaching methods that not only require more reading and writing on the part of the student but which also get students to think focus on meaning and consider the literary elements of a story Activities included are classroom tested may be tailored to fit each selection may be accomplished in small or large groups and may be used as an end in themselves or as a means to an end Included in the booklet are the following sections 1 Rationale for Responses to Literature 2 Engagement Activities and 3 Management Issues The contents of the booklet are germane to districts divisions which are just beginning to use literature in classrooms or which are in the process of implementing a comprehensive literature based reading program They are designed as a package to be presented in small conferences or workshops the three divisions of the package represent respectively the why what and how for attendees MG Content Area Literacy for Diverse Learners Virginia McCormack,2008 contains useful information and concepts that teachers can apply in the classroom and other instructional settings There is also a detailed resource section listing children s literature and websites that can enhance your instructional practice This helpful and comprehensive resource can be used by preservice teachers by experienced teachers and administrators for development of staff at all levels and by individuals in Alternate Route Teacher Certification programs Page 4 of cover Gateway to Reading Nancy J.

Polette,2013-04-08 Get young readers hooked on some of the best titles in juvenile literature ranging from humor to mystery to fantasy with unusual and effective methods like games Getting students to want to read is one of the greatest challenges facing middle school teachers and librarians Determining which are the right books that can spark a child s mental awakening is also difficult This book from prolific author Nancy Polette furnishes interesting and fun games to pique students interest in junior novels that are worth reading carefully selected titles that will contribute to their educational and emotional growth Gateway to Reading 250 Author Games and Booktalks to Motivate Middle Readers is a powerful tool for luring middle school students away from the distractions of 21st century media and introducing them to junior or tween novels that they won t be able to put down By presenting children with a challenge to engage their minds racing to decode book titles or using their creativity to come up with titles of their own for example students are naturally drawn towards reading these books from well known children s authors Leap Into Literacy Kathleen Gould Lundy,2007 Offers lesson plans and
