Social Work Practice Across Disability Juliet Rothman, 2018-03-13. This book will help prepare the reader to work across disabilities by providing knowledge and training grounded within the ecological framework in four principal areas. The four principal areas the reader will be trained in are the societal environment and disability, disability and the individual experience, essential skills for social work micro, mezzo and macro practice with people with disabilities and the resource and support network for persons with disabilities. The book is organized around four units, each of which addresses one of the areas noted. It is not the purpose of this book to enable the reader to gain expertise in any one disabling condition or impairment. Rather, the goal is to provide a broad base of knowledge and skills which will enable the reader to work effectively across a variety of disabling conditions. Special educators, social workers, parents, Interspecies Emotional Labour Tiamat Warda, 2025-12-03. This book explores the topic of interspecies emotional labour through the work of guide dogs and their instructors. The skill of managing emotions to present oneself with professionalism is referred to as emotional labour. Extending practitioner knowledge and emotional labour theory to Anthrozoology and Animal Organization Studies discourse, this multispecies ethnography draws on the author's work with guide dogs and those of the professionals she interviewed to introduce multiple case studies that explore the enmeshed dynamics and practices involved in emotional labour within multispecies workplaces. It presents new insights into why the emotional labour strategies a human or dog worker utilises are important and how these can directly impact an individual's working success and well-being. Despite the centrality of emotional labour performances in multispecies workplaces, it has fallen under the radar of academic and practitioner attention until recent years making this an innovative timely addition to existing discourse This book will appeal to practitioners and academics interested in understanding and improving emotional labour education and practices to support more sustainable interspecies work

A Philosopher Looks at Work Raymond Geuss,2021-05-20 Is work as we know it disappearing And if so why should we care These questions are explored by Raymond Geuss in this compact but sweeping survey which integrates conceptual analysis historical reflection autobiography and social commentary Geuss explores our concept of work and its origins in industrial production the incentives and compulsions which societies use to get us to work and the powerful hold which the work ethic has over so many of us He also looks at dissatisfaction with work which is as old as work itself and at various radical proposals for doing away with it and at the seemingly irreversible growth of unemployment as a result of mechanisation His book will interest anyone who wishes to understand the place of work in our world This new series offers short and personal perspectives by expert thinkers on topics that we all encounter in our everyday lives
