presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Cl zio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years Cherchez la femme Erika Fülöp, 2011-05-25 Throughout history the most fundamental values at the basis of societal organization and culture were determined and sanctified almost exclusively by men including the values traditionally associated with women such as corporeal beauty purity motherhood or empathy However from ancient times and increasingly toward the end of the second millennium women have succeeded in finding ways to overcome such limits and have made their contributions to the revision of values and to the establishment of new ones Cherchez la femme offers a selection of essays inquiring into the nature of aesthetic linguistic cultural and social values created informed or reformed by women in the French speaking world as well as studies on how the discourse of male power used female figures to strengthen its own position With topics ranging in time from Semiramis s ancient legend to today and in space from Qu bec to Haiti metropolitan France and New Caledonia the volume shares the richness and fruitfulness of the female perspective in art culture theory and political action

L'écriture du bonheur dans le roman contemporain

Ruth Amar, 2011-01-18 Through the ages the pursuit of Happiness has been at the heart of the needs and desires each individual would seek to fulfill while as a concept Happiness has always resonated strongly in poetic as well as philosophical sociological and psychological contexts But what about Happiness today in a world dominated by technology driven by productivity and dictated by efficiency Does Happiness still feature in contemporary fiction in any significant way Or has it perhaps gone underground adopting different guises Would we still call that duty of happiness that Pascal Bruckner saw as present at the second half of the twentieth century a relevant force today Or has it waned perceptibly The articles brought together in this volume seek to work out answers to these and similar questions creatively addressing the imminent risks but also eagerly following up the intriguing possibilities one encounters when interrogating Happiness in the contemporary novel Originally based on an international conference organized at the University of Haifa Israel in May 2010 the volume is structured around the axes we found useful as a basis for the various approaches towards Happiness in Europe and the historical and social events that influenced the writing of Happiness as they defined the 20th century and have impacted on the 21st the Holocaust the Soviet dystopia consumerism postmodernism everyday life the various as yet unarticulated new modes of life they have given rise to and so on A new writing of happiness then At the very least this volume targets the contemporary novel without wanting to solidify works instead taking into account the fluctuations Happiness has been subjected to and the diversity and especially the paradoxes it has created while we have been keen to preserve a precise reading of the texts and have felt compelled to respect and preserve the particular features that make the writings of the authors we focus on stand out Th me philosophique aussi bien que po tique sociologique et psychologique le bonheur s difie la mesure de chacun N est il pas vrai que nous autres hommes nous d siron s tous tre heureux Platon Or dans notre monde actuel domin par la technique la recherche outrance du productif et de l efficacit qu en est il du bonheur Est il encore pr sent aux critiques romanesques contemporaines Sous quelles formes se pr senterait sa recherche Ce devoir de bonheur propre la deuxi me moiti du XXe si cle dont parle Pascal Bruckner continue t il toujours tre d actualit S est il renforc ou au contraire s est il affaibli Le projet d un questionnement du bonheur dans le roman contemporain comportait de gros risques mais il offrait en m me temps des possibilit s stimulantes A la suite du colloque international organis l universit de Ha fa en mai 2010 les textes r unis dans ce livre cherchent laborer des l ments de r ponse ces questions Le volume offre un tat des lieux du bonheur dans le roman depuis 1980 et pr sente une large diversit d approches de d finitions d interrogations sur l critique du bonheur sur trois d cennies Le recueil s articule autour d axes qui ont servi de base aux diff rentes approches du bonheur en Europe et d v nements historiques et sociaux qui ont pu influencer l critique du bonheur aux diff rentes p riodes du XXe et XXIe si cles telles que l Holocauste la dystopie en Russie le postmodernisme et le consum risme le quotidien les diff rents paradoxes du bonheur les nouveaux modes de vie Nouvelle critique du bonheur Du moins ce volume vise t il le contemporain

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women s writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writer s coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women s writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counter parts The editors incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens, 2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women s writing in France from the sixth century to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers offering fascinating readings and perspectives The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women s writing which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women s activities in or their relation to the social political economic and cultural surroundings Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women

Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource
